Nineteenth-Century French Short Stories (Dual-Language) Stanley Appelbaum, 2012-12-04 French text and English translations on facing pages of six stories Merimee's Mateo Falcone Nerval's Sylvie Daudet's La mule du Pape Flaubert's Herodias Zola's L'attaque du moulin de Maupassant's Mademoiselle Perle Great French Short Stories Paul Negri, 2012-09-21 Features twelve classic tales including The Necklace Maupassant The Unknown Masterpiece Balzac The Attack on the Mill Zola plus works by Gide Daudet and seven other authors The French Short Story, 2024-09-09

The Conte Janice Carruthers, Maeve McCusker, 2010 A majority of the chapters in this book were originally presented as papers at a conference held at Queen's University Belfast in September 2006 The volume explores the oral written dynamic in the conte francais francophone focusing on key aspects of the relationship between oral and written forms of the conte The chapters fall into four broad thematic areas the oral written dynamic in early modern France literary appropriations and transformations postcolonial contexts storytelling in contemporary France linguistic strategies Within these broad areas some chapters deal with sources and influences such as that of written on oral and vice versa others with the nature of the discourse resulting from an oral written dynamic discourse structure linguistic features etc some with the oral written interface as it affects the definition of genre others with the role of the oral within the literary or written text use of storytelling scenarios the problematics inherent in transcribing adapting the spoken word etc This chronological and methodological range allows us to situate the emergence of the form in socio cultural and historical terms and to open up debate around the role of the conte in particular geographical and political contexts regional national European and postcolonial This book contains contributions in both English and French The Nineteenth-Century French Short Story Allan Pasco, 2019-07-03 The 19th Century French Short Story by eminent scholar Allan H Pasco seeks to offer a more comprehensive view of the definition capabilities and aims of short stories The book examines general instances of the genre specifically in 19th century France by recognizing their cultural context demonstrating how close analysis of texts effectively communicates their artistry and arguing for a distinction between middling and great short stories Where previous studies have examined the writers of short stories individually The 19th Century French Short Story takes a broader lens to the subject and looks at short story writers as they grapple with the artistic ethical and social concerns of their day Making use of French short story masterpieces with reinforcing comparisons to works from other traditions this book offers the possibility of a more adequate appreciation of the under valued short story genre Etudes sur la nouvelle de langue française René Godenne, 1993 Precarious Partners Kari Weil, 2020-03-23 From the recent spate of equine deaths on racetracks to protests demanding the removal of mounted Confederate soldier statues to the success and appeal of War Horse there is no question that horses still play a role in our lives though fewer and fewer of us actually interact with them In Precarious Partners Kari Weil takes readers back to a time in France when horses were an inescapable part of daily life This was a time when horse ownership became an attainable dream not just for soldiers but also for middle class children when natural historians argued about animal intelligence when the prevalence of horse beatings led to the first animal protection laws and when the combined magnificence and abuse of these animals inspired artists writers and riders alike Weil traces the evolving partnerships established between French citizens and their horses through this era She considers the newly designed races of workhorses who carried men from the battlefield to the hippodrome lugged heavy loads through the boulevards or paraded women riders amazones in the parks or circus halls as well as those unfortunate horses who found their fate on a dinner plate Moving between literature painting natural philosophy popular cartoons sports manuals and tracts of public hygiene Precarious Partners traces the changing social political and emotional relations with these charismatic creatures who straddled conceptions of pet and livestock in nineteenth century France

Black Venus Tracey Denean Sharpley-Whiting, 1999-05-19 Black Venus is a feminist study of the representations of black women in the literary cultural and scientific imagination of nineteenth century France Employing psychoanalysis feminist film theory and the critical race theory articulated in the works of Frantz Fanon and Toni Morrison T Denean Sharpley Whiting argues that black women historically invoked both desire and primal fear in French men By inspiring repulsion attraction and anxiety they gave rise in the nineteenth century French male imagination to the primitive narrative of Black Venus The book opens with an exploration of scientific discourse on black females using Sarah Bartmann the so called Hottentot Venus and natural scientist Georges Cuvier as points of departure To further show how the image of a savage was projected onto the bodies of black women Sharpley Whiting moves into popular culture with an analysis of an 1814 vaudeville caricature of Bartmann then shifts onto the terrain of canonical French literature and colonial cinema exploring the representation of black women by Baudelaire Balzac Zola Maupassant and Loti After venturing into twentieth century film with an analysis of Josephine Baker s popular Princesse Tam Tam the study concludes with a discussion of how black Francophone women writers and activists countered stereotypical representations of black female bodies during this period A first time translation of the vaudeville show The Hottentot Venus or Hatred of Frenchwomen supplements this critique of the French male gaze of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Both intellectually rigorous and culturally intriguing this study will appeal to students and scholars in the fields of nineteenth and twentieth century French literature feminist and gender studies black studies and cultural studies

Balzac and the Model of Painting Diana Knight, 2007 Texts about paintings painters and sculptors are obvious test cases for issues of representation A significant corpus of artist stories is scattered through Honore de Balzac s Comedie humaine which from Marx to Lukacs to Roland Barthes s enormously influential S Z 1970 has been a key literary work for critical debates around French realism In a series of close readings Diana Knight explores Barthes s model of painting the metaphorical code of painting and sculpture that underpins realist discourse in the context of Balzac s fictional representations of the relation between artists their models and their works of art Whereas critics have tended to denounce

Balzac's realist aesthetic as complicit with the misogyny of the society he portrays Balzac and the Model of Painting takes the artist model relationship variously gendered in these stories as the focus of the author's powerful realist critique of the sexual politics of prostitution and marriage in nineteenth century France Canadiana, 1976 Gustave Caillebotte Scott Allan, Gloria Groom, Paul Perrin, 2025-01-07 This richly illustrated volume paints a complex portrait of Caillebotte masculinity and identity in late nineteenth century France More than any other French Impressionist painter Gustave Caillebotte 1848 1894 observed and depicted the many men in his life including his brothers and friends employees and the workers and bourgeois in his Parisian neighborhood Male subjects feature prominently in some of his best known works such as The Floor Scrapers Man at His Bath Young Man at His Window Boating Party and Paris Street Rainy Day The originality of his paintings of men is fully explored for the first time in this catalogue published to accompany a major international exhibition co organized by the J Paul Getty Museum Mus e d Orsay and the Art Institute of Chicago Alongside paintings drawings and photographs as well as an appendix featuring maps and new biographical research that sheds light on Caillebotte's social network this volume includes historically grounded thematic essays by curators and leading scholars By exploring the complex and varied facets of Caillebotte's identity as son brother soldier bachelor amateur sportsman and so on these essays pose questions of identity leaving space for ambiguous and fluid expressions of gender and masculinity for both Caillebotte and the larger late nineteenth century French world This volume is published to accompany an exhibition on view at the Mus e d Orsay from October 8 2024 to January 19 2025 J Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center from March 25 to May 25 2025 and The Art Institute of Chicago from June 29 to October 5 2025 Catalogue Goucher College, 1896 impressive developments in the medical sciences and a concomitant growth in the prestige of the medical practitioner In France this phenomenon had important implications for literature as writers scrambled to give legitimacy to their enterprise by allying themselves with science Overflowing its traditional banks medical discourse inundated the field of French literature particularly in the realist and naturalist movements The literati's enthrallment with medicine and their subservient adoption of a medical model in the creation of their plots and characters have not previously been seriously questioned In Medical Examinations Mary Donaldson Evans corrects this oversight Exploring six novels and two short stories published during the Second Empire and the early Third Republic she argues that there was a growing resistance to medicine's linguistic and professional hegemony a resistance fraught with ideological implications Tainted by a subtle and sometimes not so subtle anti-Semitism some of the fiction of this period adopts counterdiscursive strategies to tar the physician with his own brush Featured authors include Gustave Flaubert Edmond and Jules Goncourt Emile Zola Joris Karl Huysmans Guy de Maupassant and Alphonse and Léon Daudet
