The Mind of the Book Alastair Fowler, 2017 Alastair Fowler presents a fascinating study of title pages printed in England from the early modern era to the nineteenth century exploring their place in the history of the book for the first time He illuminates key features of title page design and presents 16 illustrations of significant title pages with commentaries from Chaucer to Dickens

The Casa del Deán Penny C. Morrill, 2023-09-15 The Casa del De n in Puebla Mexico is one of few surviving sixteenth century residences in the Americas Built in 1580 by Tom s de la Plaza the Dean of the Cathedral the house was decorated with at least three magnificent murals two of which survive Their rediscovery in the 1950s and restoration in 2010 revealed works of art that rival European masterpieces of the early Renaissance while incorporating indigenous elements that identify them with Amerindian visual traditions Extensively illustrated with new color photographs of the murals The Casa del De n presents a thorough iconographic analysis of the paintings and an enlightening discussion of the relationship between Tom s de la Plaza and the indigenous artists whom he commissioned Penny Morrill skillfully traces how native painters trained by the Franciscans used images from Classical mythology found in Flemish and Italian prints and illustrated books from France as well as animal images and glyphic traditions with pre Columbian origins to create murals that are reflective of Don Tom s s erudition and his role in evangelizing among the Amerindians She demonstrates how the importance given to rhetoric by both the Spaniards and the Nahuas became a bridge of communication between these two distinct and highly evolved cultures This pioneering study of the Casa del De n mural cycle adds an important new chapter to the study of colonial Latin American art as it increases our understanding of the process by which imagery in the New World took on Christian meaning

Encyclopedia of Ephemera Maurice Rickards, 2018-10-24 The joy of finding an old box in the attic filled with postcards invitations theater programs laundry lists and pay stubs is discovering the stories hidden within them The paper trails of our lives or ephemera may hold sentimental value reminding us of great grandparents They chronicle social history They can be valuable as collectibles or antiques But the greatest pleasure is that these ordinary documents can reconstruct with uncanny immediacy the drama of day to day life The Encyclopedia of Ephemera is the first work of its kind providing an unparalleled sourcebook with over 400 entries that cover all aspects of everyday documents and artifacts from bookmarks to birth certificates to lighthouse dues papers Continuing a tradition that started in the Victorian era when disposable paper items such as trade cards die cuts and greeting cards were accumulated to paste into scrap books expert Maurice Rickards has compiled an enormous range of paper collectibles from the obscure to the commonplace His artifacts come from around the world and include such throw away items as cigarette packs and crate labels as well as the ubiquitous faxes parking tickets and phone cards of daily life As this major new reference shows simple slips of paper can speak volumes about status taste customs and taboos revealing the very roots of popular culture
