Constitutionalism Avgust Alekseevich Mishin, Vasilii Vlasikhin, 1988 International Bibliography of Historical Sciences, 1988 Verzeichnis der exzerpierten zeitschriften 1926 p XXXI XVII The War Power After 200 Years United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Special Subcommittee on War Powers, 1989 Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents, 1987 Constitutionalism Across Borders in the Struggle Against Terrorism Federico Fabbrini, Vicki C. Jackson, 2016-04-29 This edited collection explores the topic of constitutionalism across borders in the struggle against terrorism analyzing how constitutional rules and principles relevant in the field of counter terrorism move across borders Various chapters underline how constitution like norms consolidate at the level of international and supranational organizations as a limit to the exercise of public power in the field of counter terrorism policy especially counter terrorism financing Other chapters examine the extraterritorial application of constitutional rights and the migration of constitutional norms or anti constitutional practices from one state to another Still others consider how transnational cooperation between states in areas such as intelligence gathering and data sharing may call for updating domestic constitutional law rules or for new international law compacts entrenching rights across borders What emerges is a picture of the complex interplay of constitutional law international law criminal law and the law of war creating webs of norms and regulations that apply in the struggle against terrorism conducted across increasingly porous borders The book will be of particular interest to academics and graduate or postgraduate students working in the fields of constitutional law international law human rights comparative law and national security law It may also be of interest to practitioners concerned with national security counter terrorism and related questions of individual rights Proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the United States to Provide a Procedure by which the States May Propose Constitutional Amendments United States.
