Business Issues in the Arts Anthony Rhine, Jay Pension, 2022-08-08 Business Issues in the Arts is a text designed to address some of the most prescient business issues that nonprofit arts organizations face today This text is not a how to but an in depth dive into fourteen topics and their associated theories to augment learning in arts administration programs With contributions from leading academics in arts administration the book guides readers through an exploration of those topics which have been found by practitioners to be most vital and least explored Chapters include numerous case examples to illustrate business theory in the artistic and creative environment The academic contributors themselves each come with both professional backgrounds and research experience and they are each introduced at the start of their chapters allowing for a collection of voices to navigate through some oftentimes challenging topics This book is designed for an advanced undergraduate course or a stand alone graduate course on the intersection of business and management and the cultural and creative industries especially those focusing on business issues in the arts Scenic Art for the Theatre Susan Crabtree, Peter Beudert, 2005 With plenty of hints and tips Scenic Art for the Theatre is an easily understood textbook for students and professionals alike who want to know more about set design and the history of scenic artistry The Cyclopædia; Or, Universal Dictionary of Arts, Sciences, and Literature. By Abraham Rees, ... with the Assistance of Eminent Professional Gentlemen. Illustrated with Numerous Engravings, by the Most Distinguished Artists. In Thirty-nine Volumes. Vol. 1 [- 39] ,1819 Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1874 Teaching Art in a Postmodern World Lee Emery, 2002 Collection of essays by Australian and English art educators discussing the transition from modernist to postmodernist art education Teachers reflect on changes in their own teaching and discuss how they introduce students to contemporary art and plan a curriculum Includes photos and references Simultaneously published in PDF and paperback formats Editor is Associate Professor in arts education at the University of Melbourne and is an honorary life member of the Australian Institute for Art Education Ars longa, vita brevis World Intellectual Property Organization, 2023-08-24 This paper studies the death effect on artists exhibitions and commercial success in the secondary art market Based on a random sample of 1 000 popular artists born after the turn of the 20th century we construct a novel panel data set of their worldwide exhibition history and auction transactions By applying a regression discontinuity and event study design we find an overall negative effect of artist death on the number of exhibitions However this post mortem effect disappears in longer term Roughly ten years after death exhibitions are back to pre death levels Arguably transaction cost and higher auction prices after death also temporarily increase the average cost of exhibiting artworks e g higher market valuation raises unobserved insurance cost for exhibitions Hedonic auction price models confirm this intuition and suggest a significant price premium posthumously We find substantial heterogeneity in the treatment depending on the age and reputation of the artist at death Overall findings explain important mechanisms for the post mortem value of artistic work and have important policy implications for the creative sectors and the design of legacy stewardship rules including a possible justification for rights granted post mortem such as
