The Restoration Covenant Jamie L. Perez, 2002 Noah was a man of his time He faced the same temptations and urges as his neighbors but with a difference He resisted those urges Instead of seeking instant gratification Noah was willing to wait He knew that the violence and wickedness around him brought no one any lasting pleasure as Cain had clearly illustrated Violence bred more violence until all hope of security and peace was lost Those who tried to resist it were either seduced into it or killed until only one righteous man remained If God were going to salvage mankind Noah was God's last hope This Bible study is designed to bring Noah's struggles and conflicts into your living room and into your heart You may rejoice with his victories and cry with his defeats but most importantly learn from his life God's commands were heart wrenching How could Noah willingly participate in God's plan His obedience would bring death to his family friends and society Almost everyone and everything he ever knew would be lost How could he live through such a great personal loss Gather your friends together This is an experience you will want to share Noah's legacy it is a story to remember
