Craft Of Writing Science Fiction That Sells:

The Craft of Writing Science Fiction that Sells Ben Bova, 1994 Offers advice for constructing strong stories and novels discusses the major elements of science fiction storytelling and offers tips on researching markets and submitting manuscripts for publication

Foundations of Fiction Judith Simpson, 2001-08 So you want to write a novel Your character is demanding to be let out of your head and be put down on paper How do you write a story that sells Writing good fiction is more than having a great story in your head It is creating characters that live and breathe and plots that grip the reader It is creating a setting that is real to your readers dialogue that sparkles and pacing that drives the story forward It is action scenes that put the reader sweaty palmed in the middle of it all and love scenes that melt the reader's heart You need to learn the art of crafting a story How do you get your story published Foundations of Fiction takes you step by step through the process of finding an agent or publisher and creating a compelling synopsis All writers serve an apprenticeship as they learn their craft but learning by trial and error is frustrating and tedious Foundations of Fiction covers all of the nitty gritty techniques of fiction writing This how to book written by an author who has been there and done that is your foremost source for creating a story that sells

Science Fiction Writer's Marketplace and Sourcebook David Borcharding, 1994-09-15 Combining how to write instruction with where to sell direction this comprehensive guide is invaluable for science fiction and fantasy writers Includes samples with editor's critiques and advice from established authors more than 100 detailed market listings for magazines dozens of listings for publishing houses and information on related organizations on line services and more

Writing Science Fiction that Sells Harvey L. Bilker, Audrey L. Bilker, 1982

Off the Main Sequence Tom Easton, 2006-10-01 Tom Easton has served as the monthly book review columnist for Analog Science Fiction for almost three decades having contributed during that span many hundreds of columns and over a million words of penetrating criticism on the best literature that science fiction has to offer His reviews have been celebrated for their wit humor readability knowledge and incisiveness His love of literature particularly fantastic literature is everywhere evident in his essays Easton has ever been willing to cover small presses obscure authors and unusual publications being the only major critic in the field to do so on a regular basis He seems to delight in finding the rare gem among the backwaters of the publishing field A reviewer's job he says is not to judge books for the ages but to tell readers enough about a book to give them some idea of whether they would enjoy it And this he does admirably whether he's discussing the works of the great writers in the field or touching upon the least amongst them This companion volume to Periodic Stars Borgo Wildside collects another 250 of Easton's best reviews from the last fifteen years of The Reference Library No one does it better and no other guide provides such lengthy or discerning commentary on the best SF works of recent times Complete with Introduction and detailed Index
