Death in the Classroom Jeffrey Berman, 2009-01-08 In Death in the Classroom Jeffrey Berman writes about Love and Loss the course that he designed and taught two years after his wife s death in which he

explored with his students the literature of bereavement Berman building on his previous courses that emphasized self disclosing writing shows how his students wrote about their own experiences with love and loss how their writing affected classmates and teacher alike and how writing about death can lead to educational and psychological breakthroughs In an age in which eighty percent of Americans die not in their homes but in institutions and in which consequently the living are separated from the dying Death in the Classroom reveals how reading writing and speaking about death can play a vital role in a student s education Voices from the Field ,2008-09 The publication Voices From the Field contains personal essays written by returned Peace Corps Volunteers accompanied by standards based language arts lesson plans and workshops that Stengthen students reading comprehension and writing skills Engage and inspire students to respond to the text and create original narratives Broaden students perspectives on the world and themselves Me-Search and Re-Search DeMethra LaSha Bradley,Robert Nash,2011-03-01 From the Foreword Robert and DeMethra s book Me Searching and Re Search has caught my fancy in a number of ways The book title cleverly captures what SPN is all about it is about self narratives the me search part and about scholarly meaning making the re search part This eye catching title also illuminates the authors intent to turn this seemingly intimidating method of self inquiry into something very accessible and doable Their jargon free language is friendly and inviting Although they don t intend to make their many methodological tips and tools too prescriptive their practical suggestions provided in this guide book are indeed helpful and useful I believe that Robert and DeMethra have demonstrated admirable talents as effective educators by unpacking the complex method of SPN writing into bite sized steps I am fully convinced that the steps will help both novices and the experienced researcher to reach the ultimate height of producing engaging and scholarly significant SPN s The book is also fun to read The authors intersperse throughout their own SPN s pedagogical insights from their doing and teaching and real life stories in order to illustrate the methodological process challenges and triumphs Positioning Yourself as a Writer ,2002 Literacy Essentials Regie Routman,2023-10-10 In her practical and inspirational book Literacy Essentials Engagement Excellence and Equity for All Learners author Regie Routman guides K 12 teachers to create a trusting intellectual and equitable classroom culture that allows all learners to thrive as self directed readers writers thinkers and responsible citizens Over the course of three sections Routman provides numerous Take Action ideas for implementing authentic and responsive teaching assessing and learning This book poses a key question How do we rise to the challenge of providing an engaging excellent equitable education for all learners including those from high poverty and underserved schools Teaching for Engagement Many high performing schools are characterized by a a thriving school culture built on a network of authentic communication Teachers can strengthen classroom engagement by building a trusting and welcoming environment where all students can have a safe and collaborative space to grow and develop Pursuing Excellence Routman identifies 10 key factors that describe an excellent teacher ranging from intellectual curiosity to creativity and explains how carrying yourself as a role model contributes to an inclusive caring empathic and fair classroom She also stresses the importance for school leaders to make job embedded professional development a top priority Dismantling Unequal Education The huge gap in the quality of education in high vs low income communities is the civil rights issue of the 21st century according to Routman She spells out specific actions educators can take to create more equitable schools and classrooms such as diversifying texts used in curriculums and ensuring all students have access to opportunities to discuss reflect and engage with important ideas From the author I wrote Literacy Essentials because I saw a need to simplify teaching raise expectations and make expert teaching possible for all of us I saw a need to emphasize how a school culture of kindness trust respect and curiosity is essential to any lasting achievement I saw a need to demonstrate and discuss how and why the beliefs actions knowledge we hold determine the potential for many of our students Equal opportunity to learn depends on a culture of engagement and equity which under lies a relentless pursuit of excellence

A Note Slipped Under the Door Nick Flynn, Shirley McPhillips, 2000

WHATEVER SHIRLEY OR NICK TELL YOU BELIEVE THEM Naomi Shihab Nye How do we read a poem What can we teach from a poem we love How can we name what poets do in order to inform our writing our teaching In their staff development work with teachers Nick Flynn and Shirley McPhillips have often encountered these and similar questions This book invites preservice and inservice teachers staff developers anyone who wants to make a lasting place for poetry in their own and their students lives into many of these same primary through middle school classrooms for an up close look at several thoughtful rigorous poetry inquiries Each chapter begins with a mentor poem as the centerpiece for discussion followed by a short narrative of ways the authors view their world through that chapter s particular poetic lens The authors then walk the reader into a classroom writer s workshop where through vignettes conversations and carefully designed mini lessons that chapter s key element of poetic practice is being studied over time Other aspects that will help teachers in designing and conducting inquiry around mentor poems include mini lessons that take students through an inquiry from launch to in depth extensions illustrations of student writing samples in the try it stages successive drafts and crafted poems words stories and examples of best loved poets that inspire and instruct us in our own thinking and teaching appendixes that include various types of book lists charts conference transcripts and additional poems A Note Slipped Under the Door will show how you might help your student writers let the poems they love teach them what they need to know and build a writing life that includes finding and crafting their own
