Craftsman Of The Cumberlands:

Craftsman of the Cumberlands Michael Owen Jones, 2021-10-21 Why do people consider aesthetic qualities as well as utilitarian ones in the making of everyday objects Why do they maintain traditions What is the nature of their creative process These are some of the larger questions addressed by Michael Owen Jones in his book on craftsmen in the Cumberland Mountains of eastern Kentucky Concentrating on the work of one man woodworker and chairmaker Chester Cornett Jones not only describes the tools and techniques employed by Cornett but also his aspirations and values Cornett possessed a deep knowledge of his materials and a mastery of construction methods Some of his chairs represent not objects of utility but aesthetic developments of the chair form Cornett sought to cope with the problems of his life Jones maintains their massiveness provided a sense of security the virtuosity of their design and construction a feeling of self esteem Jones also compares other area craftsmen and their views about their work

The Woodwright's Apprentice Roy Underhill, 2012-01-01 For more than twenty years Roy Underhill has taught the techniques of traditional woodcraft with muscle powered tools With his four previous books and his popular PBS series The Woodwright s Shop now in its sixteenth season Roy has inspired millions to take up chisel and plane The master woodwright returns here with instructions for handcrafting an appealing selection of projects from the American woodworking tradition The Woodwright s Apprentice begins with directions for building a workbench Each successive project builds new skills for the apprentice woodworker from frame construction to dovetailing turning steam bending and carving Among the twenty items featured are an African chair a telescoping music stand a walking stick chair a fireplace bellows and a revolving Windsor chair Designed both for woodworking novices and for more seasoned woodworkers looking for enjoyable projects the book includes step by step directions complete with easy to follow photographs and measured drawings and an illustrated glossary of tools and terms All of the pieces presented here are based on projects featured in past and upcoming seasons of The Woodwright s Shop television show

The Grace of Four Moons Pravina Shukla, 2015-10-16 Because clothing food and shelter are basic human needs they provide excellent entries to cultural values and individual aesthetics Everyone gets dressed every day but body art has not received the attention it deserves as the most common and universal of material expressions of culture The Grace of Four Moons aims to document the clothing decisions made by ordinary people in their everyday lives Based on fieldwork conducted primarily in the city of Banaras India Pravina Shukla conceptualizes and realizes a total model for the study of body art understood as all aesthetic modifications and supplementations to the body

Shukla urges the study of the entire process of body art from the assembly of raw materials and the manufacture of objects through their sale and the interactions between merchants and consumers to the consumer's use of objects in creating personal decoration

Self-taught Art Charles Russell, 2001 The first book to give self-taught art the same degree of scholarly attention and critical thinking that mainstream art traditionally receives

Icon in Canada Robert B. Klymasz, 1996-01-01 Separated from its origins in the Old World, East Christian iconography in Canada has come to enjoy a popular following from coast to coast. With its fourteen chapters, the present volume documents this living tradition from a variety of perspectives to offer the first national survey of its kind. Here for the first time folklorists join with art historians, anthropologists, a scientist, a theologian, enthusiasts, and iconographers to underscore the richness of a phenomenon that continues to captivate large segments of the country's population. Published in English

The Carver's Art Simon J. Bronner, 2021-11-21 Chains carved from a single block of wood, cages whittled with wooden balls rattling inside, all made with just a pocketknife are among our most enduring folk designs. Who makes them and why? What is their history? What do they mean for their makers, for their viewers, for our society? Simon J. Bronner portrays four wood carvers in southern Indiana, men who had been transplanted from the rural landscapes of their youth to industrial towns. After retiring, they took up a skill they remembered from childhood. Bronner discusses how creativity helped these men adjust to change and how viewers' responses to carving reflect their own backgrounds. By recording the narratives of these men's lives, the stories and anecdotes that laced their conversation, Bronner finds new insight into the functions and symbolism of traditional craft. Including a new illustrated afterword in which the author discusses recent developments in the carver's art, this new edition will appeal to carvers, scholars, and anyone interested in traditional woodworking

Folklore: The Basics Simon J. Bronner, 2016-10-04 Folklore: The Basics is an engaging guide to the practice and interpretation of folklore. Taking examples from around the world, it explores the role of folklore in expressing fundamental human needs, desires, and anxieties that often are not revealed through other means. Providing a clear framework for approaching the study of folklore, it introduces the reader to methodologies for identifying, documenting, interpreting, and applying key information about folklore and its relevance to modern life. From the Brothers Grimm to Internet Memes, it addresses such topics as: What is folklore? How do we study it? Why does folklore matter?

How does folklore relate to elite culture Is folklore changing in a digital age With case studies suggestions for reading and a glossary of key terminology Folklore The Basics supports readers in becoming familiar with folkloric traditions and interpret cultural expression It is an essential read for anyone approaching the study of folklore for the first time Daniel Johnston

Henry Glassie,2020-03-03 DANIEL JOHNSTON raised on a farm in Randolph County returned from Thailand with a new way to make monumental pots Back home in North Carolina he built a log shop and a wheel of a kiln for wood firing Then he set out to create beautiful pots grand in scale graceful in form and burned bright in a blend of ash and salt With mastery achieved and apprentices to teach Daniel Johnston turned his brain to massive installations First he made a hundred large jars and lined them along the rough road that runs past his shop and kiln Next he arranged curving clusters of big pots inside pine frames slatted like corn cribs to separate them from the slick interiors of four fine galleries in succession Then in concluding the second phase of his professional career Daniel Johnston built an open air installation on the grounds around the North Carolina Museum of Art where 178 handmade wood fired columns march across a slope in a straight line 350 feet in length that dips and lifts with the heave while the tops of the pots maintain a level horizon In 2000 when he was still Mark Hewitt s apprentice Daniel Johnston met Henry Glassie who has done fieldwork on ceramic traditions in the United States Brazil Italy Turkey Bangladesh China and Japan Over the years during a steady stream of intimate interviews Glassie gathered the understanding that enabled him to compose this portrait of Daniel Johnston a young artist who makes great pots in the eastern Piedmont of North Carolina Eight Words for the Study of Expressive Culture Burt
