The Orthodox Church in Ukraine Nicholas E. Denysenko, 2018-11-23 The bitter separation of Ukraine s Orthodox churches is a microcosm of its societal strife From 1917 onward church leaders failed to agree on the church s mission in the twentieth century The core issues of dispute were establishing independence from the Russian church and adopting Ukrainian as the language of worship Decades of polemical exchanges and public statements by leaders of the separated churches contributed to the formation of their distinct identities and sharpened the friction amongst their respective supporters In The Orthodox Church in Ukraine Nicholas Denysenko provides a balanced and comprehensive analysis of this history from the early twentieth century to the present Based on extensive archival research Denysenko s study examines the dynamics of church and state that complicate attempts to restore an authentic Ukrainian religious identity in the contemporary Orthodox churches An enhanced understanding of these separate identities and how they were forged could prove to be an important tool for resolving contemporary religious differences and revising ecclesial policies This important study will be of interest to historians of the church specialists of former Soviet countries and general readers interested in the history of the Orthodox Church International Review of Biblical Studies, Volume 51 (2004-2005)

Reformation to Restoration John Renwick, 2010-04-30 Death by drowning or being burned at the stake In the days of the Reformation many Christians suffered this horrible fate What was their crime Simply being baptised immersed into Christ as believing adults Why did they endure death They preferred death to compromising their faith Today we are beneficiaries of the stand they took and the spiritual heritage they passed on Thank God that after 150 years of these killing times a more enlightened age came in This was the age of religious discussion and discovery as men sought the truth in religion It was not easy to go against over 1500 years of human tradition Where was truth to be found In that which existed from the days of the apostles the Word of God Their spiritual quest also blesses our lives if we are but willing to listen A further 100 years would elapse before Restoration principles produced fruit Again we are blessed with the fruit of their labours However every generation has to decide what to believe and why That challenge remains and it is a challenge that confronts each one of us What are we going to do about it
