On Board the USS Boise in World War II Ian S. Bertram, 2025-09-17 The story of the USS Boise CL 47 is one of fear loss endurance fame triumph and pain The light cruiser endured a remarkable career through the entirety of World War II with a redemption arc that took its crew from the position of scapegoats to heroes and ultimately to the vanguard of America's liberation forces One man Donald DB Fitch witnessed the entire conflict from his battle station on the bridge The ship conducted secret missions and fought at Guadalcanal Sicily New Guinea and the Philippines Through Fitch's eyes this book relives the terrors and thrills of naval combat along with the pranks shenanigans and the rumors that were the lifeblood of a ship through four years of war Fitch and his friends fought for each other and their country and in the end they left their mark on history

The USS Puffer in World War II Craig R. McDonald, 2015-03-19 Submarines were responsible for about 55 percent of the tonnage of the Japanese fleets sunk during World War II The 22 percent casualty rate of U S submariners was the highest of the military services This volume traces the career of the submarine the USS Puffer from the laying of her keel and her commissioning on April 27 1943 until her departure for the scrap yard in late 1960 Compiled from interviews with former crew members including the author's father Donald B McDonald as well as other contemporary sources it follows the crew of the Puffer through nine war patrols Events recollected include the First War Patrol which resulted in a record setting 38 hour submergence because of enemy fire the dangerous transfer of torpedoes while surfaced in enemy waters and the wild bombardment of Japanese shore installations with the 5 inch deck gun There are numerous wartime photographs and appendices providing a list of awards earned by the crew and a summary of claimed successful attacks Brief biographies of the seven commissioned officers are also included

American Amphibious Gunboats in World War II Robin L. Rielly, 2013-05-13 As the United States began its campaign against numerous Japanese held islands in the Pacific Japanese tactics required them to develop new weapons and strategies One of the most crucial to the island assaults was a new group of amphibious gunboats that could deliver heavy fire close in to shore as American forces landed These gunboats were also to prove important in the interdiction of inter island barge traffic and late in the war the kamikaze threat Several variations of these gunboats were developed based on the troop carrying LCI L They included three conversions of the LCI L with various combinations of guns rockets and mortars and a fourth gunboat the LCS L based on the same hull but designed as a weapons platform from the beginning By the end of the war the amphibious gunboats had proven their worth
