diaries more than three hundred in number ranges from politicians soldiers and spies to ordinary citizens and housewives from a London schoolboy watching V 1 doodlebugs from his bedroom window to an interned German refugee robbed and beaten by British troops Many others are famous and this collection includes rare material from figures such as Joseph Goebbels Joyce Grenfell Jean Paul Sartre Evelyn Waugh and Noel Coward It also contains the insights of many who were close to Winston Churchill and Adolf Hitler Most of these diaries involved a degree of danger and secrecy In occupied Europe a captured diary could betray friends and relatives to the enemy Some were downright illegal such as those kept by soldiers on the front line More than half a century after the end of the war these hidden treasures the voices of the past are still being unearthed Many of these accounts languished unread unpublished and gathering dust in scholarly archives around the world Richard Aldrich has devoted two decades to sustained research in more than a dozen countries This is war at first hand described in the most immediate terms not mediated through the voice of peripheral observers or shaded by fading memory or political allegiances
