Hunt,2010-01-20 The history of American education is replete with educational reform and to a lesser extent educational dissent Consider the present you have various forms of privatization school choice the No Child Left Behind act home schooling value added accountability alternative teacher preparation programs on line instruction etc This range of activity is not exceptional For instance consider the past progressive education open education the junior high school the middle school Life Adjustment education career education vocational education the comprehensive high school school to work year round schooling behavioral objectives proficiency exams high stakes testing whole language learning packages and self paced instruction modular scheduling site based management all presented as the way to reform American schools at least in part Then you have the reformers themselves such as John Dewey George Counts Herbert Kohl John Holt Charles Silberman Admiral Hyman Rickover James Bryant Conant all the way back to Horace Mann himself Dissenters and dissenting movements while not as numerous and certainly not as well known in educational circles count the various faith based schools and individuals such as Archbishop Hughes of New York Clearly this is an area rich in ideas rife with controversy and vital in its outcome for individuals and the nation as a whole And yet strangely enough there exists no major encyclopedia bringing the varied strands together in one place as a ready reference for scholars teachers school administrators and students studying to enter the educational profession This two volume work is intended to be that authoritative resource Key themes and topics include biographies of reformers and dissenters theoretical and ideological perspectives key programs and legislation judicial verdicts impacting educational change in America the politics and processes of educational reform and policy making dissent and resistance to reform technology s impact on educational reform A Reader s Guide in the front matter groups entries around such themes to help readers find related entries more easily     Neighborhood Democracy Richard Guarasci,2023-07-03 Higher education and America stand at a perilous moment brought about by economic and social inequality racism and the fracture of civic cohesion and structures From its origins the mission of American higher education was to promote democratic governance and a free fair and orderly society through the education of responsible citizens Just as its mission has become more urgent it is being undermined as colleges and universities find themselves trapped in a fiscal crisis that threatens their very institutional viability a crisis in large part brought about by the very perpetuation of economic and racial inequity and the consequent erosion of consensus about civic purpose and vision This book argues that higher education can and must again take leadership in promoting the participatory processes and instilling the democratic values needed to build a vibrant and fair society How to do that when as Guarasci argues a majority of colleges and universities are floundering under a business model that generates insufficient net revenue while making college unaffordable Guarasci offers a model of civic mission and engagement whereby through relatively modest investment colleges can develop reciprocal partnerships with local institutions civic and business groups to raise the quality and outcomes of K 12 education promote local entrepreneurship and community involvement raise incomes and increase the attainment of postsecondary education to benefit the wider national economy and colleges around the region and country He demonstrates how civic engagement can revitalize communities and generate developmental and foundation funding Vividly illustrated by the examples of success of students from the shadow community to which Wagner College committed its energies and resources by the stories of the local schools and their principals and the voices of local partners this book offers a compelling and detailed account of what it takes to transform an institution and a neighborhood and a model of renewal A Co Publication with AAC U     INside EDition ,1996
