From Policemen to Revolutionaries: A Sikh Diaspora in Global Shanghai, 1885-1945 Yin Cao, 2017-10-10 From Policemen to Revolutionaries uncovers the less known story of Sikh emigrants in Shanghai in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Yin Cao argues that the cross border circulation of personnel and knowledge across the British colonial and the Sikh diasporic networks facilitated the formation of the Sikh community in Shanghai eventually making this Chinese city one of the overseas hubs of the Indian nationalist struggle By adopting a translocal approach this study elaborates on how the flow of Sikh emigrants largely regarded as subalterns initially strengthened but eventually unhinged British colonial rule in East and Southeast Asia A Road Is Made Steve Smith, 2018-12-07 This is a study of the activities ideas and internal life of the Chinese Communist Party in Shanghai during its formative period It investigates the party s relations to the city s students and teachers women entrepreneurs secret societies and its workers and examines the efforts to transform the CCP into a Leninist party exploring relations between intellectuals and workers men and women Chinese and Russians within the party The book culminates in a detailed analysis of the three armed uprisings which led to the CCP s briefly taking power in March 1927 before being crushed by troops loyal to Chiang Kai shek The study highlights the extent to which the Soviet Union sought to manipulate China s national revolution yet also reveals how divisions at every level of the Comintern allowed the CCP to achieve a degree of independence and to conduct policy at considerable variance with that laid down by Moscow
