

A group of people are sitting on a grassy hill, looking out over a city at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over the scene. The people are mostly seen from behind, sitting on the grass. In the background, a city skyline is visible through the haze of the sunset. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and communal.

Creating Christian Granada David Coleman, 2013-04-15 Creating Christian Granada provides a richly detailed examination of a critical and transitional episode in Spain's march to global empire The city of Granada Islam's final bastion on the Iberian peninsula surrendered to the control of Spain's Catholic Monarchs Isabella and Ferdinand on January 2, 1492 Over the following century Spanish state and Church officials along with tens of thousands of Christian immigrant settlers transformed the formerly Muslim city into a Christian one With constant attention to situating the Granada case in the broader comparative contexts of the medieval reconquista tradition on the one hand and sixteenth century Spanish imperialism in the Americas on the other Coleman carefully charts the changes in the conquered city's social political religious and physical landscapes In the process he sheds light on the local factors contributing to the emergence of tensions between the conquerors and Granada's formerly Muslim native morisco community in the decades leading up to the crown mandated expulsion of most of the city's moriscos in 1569-1570 Despite the failure to assimilate the moriscos Granada's status as a frontier Christian community under construction fostered among much of the immigrant community innovative religious reform ideas and programs that shaped in direct ways a variety of church wide reform movements in the era of the ecumenical Council of Trent 1545-1563 Coleman concludes that the process by which reforms of largely Granadan origin contributed significantly to transformations in the Church as a whole forces a reconsideration of traditional top down conceptions of sixteenth century Catholic reform

Together in Christ Skip Bell, 198? Creating Local Arts Together Brian Schrag, 2013-06-01 Creating Local Arts Together is a manual designed to guide an individual or group into a local community's efforts at integrating its arts with the values and purposes of God's kingdom The practical playful text reduces experience based scholarly insights gained from multiple decades of incarnational ministry around the world into a flexible seven step process This manual is the second book in a two volume set on the principles and practices of ethnodoxology The first volume entitled Worship and Mission for the Global Church: An Ethnodoxology Handbook presents in textbook format the central Foundations Stories and Tools designed to equip readers in exploring more fully this important new field of research and ministry

Who Created Christianity? Craig Evans, Aaron White, 2021-10-05 Who Created Christianity is a collection of essays by top international Christian scholars who desire to reinforce the relationship that Paul had with Jesus and Christianity There is a general sense today among Christians in certain circles that Paul's teachings to the early Christian church are thought to be rogue even clashing at times with Jesus words Yet these essays set out to prove that the tradition that Paul passes on is one received from Jesus not separate from it The essays in this volume come from a diverse and international group of scholars They offer up to date studies of the teachings of Paul and how the specific teachings directly relate to the earlier teachings of Jesus This volume explores with even greater focus than ever before the tradition from which Paul emerges and the specific teachings that are part of this tradition This collection of essays proposes a complementary work to the work of David Wenham and his thesis that Paul was indeed not the founder of Christianity or the creator of Christian dogma instead he was a faithful disciple and a conveyer of a prior Christian tradition Includes essays by well known Christian scholars such as Craig Blomberg Alister McGrath N T Wright Michael Bird Greg Beale and more Paul and Jesus Issues of Continuity and Discontinuity in Their Discussion by Stanley E Porter How and Why Paul Invented Christian Theology by N T Wright The Origins of Paul s Gospel by Graham H Twelftree When Paul Met Jesus How an Idea Continues to Be Lost in History Past and Present by Stanley E Porter Paul and the Jesus Tradition An Old Question and Some New Answers by Rainer Riesner Continuity and Development in the Ministries of Jesus and of Paul by Christoph W Stenschke Paul s Significant Other in the We Passages by Joan E Taylor Whose Gospel Is It Anyway The Glory of Christ in the Prophetic Ministry of Paul according to His My Gospel and Our Gospel by Aaron W White David Wenham The Little Apocalypse Paul and Silas by Bruce Chilton The Parallels between 1 and 2 Thessalonians against the Background of Ancient Parallel Letters and Speeches by Armin D Baum Metanoia Jesus Paul and the Transformation of the Believing Mind by Alister McGrath You Would Not Believe If You Were Told Eschatological Unbelief in Early Christian Apologetics by Peter Turnill Paul on Food and Jesus on What Really Defiles Is There a Connection by Craig A Evans Gospel Women Remembered by Sarah Harris Women in the Pauline Epistles Lessons from the Jesus Tradition by Erin Heim Twelve Theses on Matthew and Paul The Jewish Gospel and the Apostle to the Gentiles by Michael F Bird Paul and the Paternoster Some Mainly Matthew Observations about a Pauline Prayer by Nathan Ridlehoover The Rediscovery of David Wenham s Rediscovery Reflections on a Pre Markan Eschatological Discourse Thirty Six Years on by Craig Blomberg Portraits of Jesus and Paul through the Lukan Lens by Steve Walton Every Sin That a Person Commits Is Outside the Body 1 Corinthians 6 18b Paul s Likely Dependence on the Jesus Tradition by John Nolland Jesus Is Lord The Rhetorical Appropriation of the Teaching of Jesus in 1 Corinthians 5 by Peter Davids The Temple and Anti Temple at Colossae by Greg Beale Filling up What Is Lacking in Christ s Afflictions Isaiah s Servant and Servants in Second Temple Judaism and Colossians 1 24 by Holly Beers

Ministry Resources for Community Life Ann Marie Eckert, 2004 Ministry Resources for Community Life offers faith communities resources and strategies to build community among young people and throughout the entire parish The manual contains nine gathered sessions to help young people get to know one another themselves and the meaning of Christian community It also contains an outline for an ecumenical event to help build community across denominational lines and it offers practical strategies and ideas for managing community issues making the most of community life opportunities and encouraging intergenerational and family relationships Each manual in the Total Youth Ministry series includes a CD containing its electronic version customizable handouts and theme related links CD System Requirements Intel R Pentium II R processor Microsoft R Windows 98 Second Edition Windows Millennium Edition Windows NT R 4 0 with Service Pack 6 Windows 2000 with Service

Effros, 2019-07-24 Creating Community with Food and Drink in Merovingian Gaul exposes the manner in which feasting and fasting in other words ritualized actions not performed solely for the purpose of nourishment were central to social interaction in Gaul both prior and subsequent to Christianization of the mixed population of Franks and Gallo Romans In exploring these issues using a multidisciplinary methodology Effros suggests that scholars may assess historical manifestations of the use of food and drink to create and reinforce the social hierarchy Effros addresses the tensions between monastic and lay communities and focuses on patronage through food and drink as a source of informal power a subject too often overlooked in favour of institutional structures more familiar to twentieth century historians India and the Indianness of Christianity Robert Eric Frykenberg, Richard Fox Young, 2009 Honoring historian Robert Eric Frykenberg arguably the historian most responsible for promoting studies of intercultural and interreligious interactions in the South Asian context the essays in this collection avoid the pitfall of Eurocentric top down historiographies and instead adopt and adapt Frykenberg's own Eurocentric bottom up approach this accentuating indigenous agency in the emergence of Christianity as an Indian religion The book features first time case studies on Christianity in a variety of unusual Indian settings including tribal societies and offers original contributions to an understanding of how Indian Christianity was perceived in the post Independence period by India's governing elite Several essayists draw heavily on rare archival documentation in the United Kingdom Germany and India The wealth of material and the perspectives gathered here constitute a remarkable volume a credit to the historian who inspired it from back cover The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church Gerard Mannion, Lewis S. Mudge, 2007-12-12 Written by an international team of distinguished scholars this comprehensive book introduces students to the fundamental historical systematic moral and ecclesiological aspects of the study of the church as well as serving as a resource for scholars engaging in ecclesiological debates on a wide variety of issues A Theology for the Church Daniel L. Akin, 2007 Leading Baptist and evangelical thinkers examine eight key Christian doctrines shaping a church theology that is both biblically sound and relevant today Making Congregational Music Local in Christian Communities Worldwide Monique M. Ingalls, Muriel Swijghuisen Reigersberg, Zoe C. Sherinian, 2018-04-09 What does it mean for music to be considered local in contemporary Christian communities and who shapes this meaning Through what musical processes have religious beliefs and practices once foreign become indigenous How does using indigenous musical practices aid in the growth of local Christian religious practices and beliefs How are musical constructions of the local intertwined with regional national or transnational religious influences and cosmopolitanisms Making Congregational Music Local in Christian Communities Worldwide explores the ways that congregational music making is integral to how communities around the world understand what it means to be local and Christian Showing how locality is produced negotiated and performed through music making this book draws on case studies from every continent that integrate insights from anthropology ethnomusicology cultural geography mission studies and practical theology Four sections explore a central aspect of the production of locality through congregational music making addressing the role of historical trends cultural and political power diverging values and translocal influences in defining what it means to be local and Christian This book contends that examining musical processes of localization can lead scholars to new understandings of the meaning and power of Christian belief and practice Living Together in Unity with Dietrich Bonhoeffer Nicholas J. Abraham, 2023-02-08 The church is Christ existing within community The church needs community that is deep and real In Living Together in Unity with Dietrich Bonhoeffer Nicholas J Abraham reclaims Bonhoeffer s vision for Christian community By exploring Bonhoeffer s life and writings Abraham identifies the foundations for community and how we can build upon them Truly Christian fellowship is through Jesus and in Jesus It is created by Jesus and maintained by the Spirit Unity does not come through trending techniques or correct opinions but through love forgiveness and God s word Bonhoeffer provides a thoughtful and timely vision for life together in Christ Creative Strategies for Conflict Management & Community Building Christian Ndubueze Anyanwu, 2009-11 This book in applying the asset mapping theory of Kretzmann and McKnight 1993 developed a positive communication strategy for minimizing conflicts and building a more Collaborative Communities in Organizations and Churches with much emphasis on inclusivity consensus and commitment to common vision and ideals While critically reviewing the traditional conflict theories in their approaches to conflict management the book uses the new lens provided by the asset mapping theory to recommend for a paradigm shift in the way people look at organizations and conflicts A new emphasis therefore is on the positive elements in organizations the assets that lie within individuals and groups as the key to minimizing conflict in organizations Besides unlike the traditional conflict theories which sees conflict as a problem this new lens sees conflict within organizations as functional and opportunities for growth The book equally identifies some of the significant factors that cause ethnic conflicts within organizations such as Prejudices among Ethnic Groups Differences of Ethnic Groups Power Struggle among Ethnic Groups Discrimination and Injustice against Groups Lack of Participatory Communication and Lack of Participatory Leadership Finally in reviewing the relevant literatures on Community Building the book underlines the various variables that make Community Building possible Such variables include Discovering and Mobilizing the Assets of Individuals and Groups within Organizations Building Relationships among Individuals and Groups within Organizations Building a more Participatory Leadership within Organizations Building a more Participatory Communication within Organizations Creating more Awareness on the necessity of Collaborative Initiatives as well as Promoting the Common Cultural Values and Ideals that holds Individuals and Groups together within Organization The Impact of Church Consultancy Ian G. Duncum, 2019-01-14 This book follows the journey of ten churches who underwent church consultancies and explores in depth both the consultancy and its outcomes Pre consultancy and post consultancy snapshots four to five years apart of vitality indicators and attendance figures using National Church Life Survey and other data are used to compare these with churches that have not undertaken church consultancies Theologies of church consultancy church health and church growth are also developed and examined intersecting with a wide body of literature including contemporary ecclesiologies Consultancy outcomes are examined in detail This includes interviews with pastors of some of those churches reflecting on their perceptions of whether and how the church consultancy impacted the health and growth of their church Conclusions are drawn about the efficacy of church consultancy in influencing the health and growth of churches as well as contexts for the best use of church consultancy This is a significant book for denominational leaders theological lecturers pastors and church leaders as they encounter lack of health in churches and seek ways forward for greater health and impact in their local communities Perpetually

Reforming: A Theology of Church Reform and Renewal John P. Bradbury, 2013-07-18 One of the slogans of the reformation was ecclesia reformata semper reformanda the reformed church always reforming Churches throughout the western world are currently engaged in reform and renewal programmes through internal structural reforms as well as movements such as emerging church This book presents a challenging theology of church reform and renewal that offers a contemporary understanding of this historic slogan Taking an interdisciplinary approach Bradbury discerns processes and practices which are perpetually reforming and renewing the identity of the church It examines doctrinal and confessional conceptions of the church re examines texts concerned with covenantal renewal and explores Jewish Christian dialogue as an example of renewal A constructive theology is offered utilizing the categories of collective memory and mimetic practice This upholds fundamental Christian identity whilst driving the process of reform and renewal under God in the context of a three way relationship between God the church and the world
