Resources in Education, 1999 Creating Performances for Teaching and Learning Chris McRae, Aubrey Huber, 2017-07-13 This book uses the metaphors of practice spaces and practice sessions to demonstrate the connection between creative and performance practices and critical pedagogy It offers a conceptual framework for using performance and creative practices as starting points for developing philosophies and practices of teaching that are grounded in aesthetic creative and critical approaches to education The practice sessions for pedagogy presented include a range of creative endeavours such as performance workshops musical routines crafting practices and writing By focusing on the critical function of creative practices the book emphasizes the ways creativity can reveal the relationship between everyday acts and social and cultural ideologies and structures Creative practices also present the opportunity for imagining new more socially just and inclusive configurations of these relationships This book is designed for teachers and students interested in critical pedagogy performance and creative educational practices Teacher Empowerment in Secondary Schools Ee Kuan Boey, 2010 EBOOK: Learning Spaces: Creating Opportunities for Knowledge Creation in Academic Life Maggi Savin-Baden, 2007-11-16 This is a timely and important book which seeks to reclaim universities as places of learning It is jargon free and forcefully argued It should be on every principal and vice chancellor's list of essential reading Jon Nixon Professor of Educational Studies University of Sheffield The ability to have or to find space in academic life seems to be increasingly difficult since we seem to be consumed by teaching and bidding overwhelmed by emails and underwhelmed by long arduous meetings This book explores the concept of learning spaces the idea that there are diverse forms of spaces within the life and life world of the academic where opportunities to reflect and critique their own unique learning position occur Learning Spaces sets out to challenge the notion that academic thinking can take place in cramped busy working spaces and argues instead for a need to recognise and promote new opportunities for learning spaces to emerge in academic life The book examines the ideas that Learning spaces are increasingly absent in academic life The creation and re creation of learning spaces is vital for the survival of the academic community The absence of learning spaces is resulting in increasing dissolution and fragmentation of academic identities Learning spaces need to be valued and possibly redefined in order to regain and maintain the intellectual health of academe In offering possibilities for creative learning spaces this innovative book provides key reading for those interested in the future of universities including educational developers researchers managers and policy makers

Teacher Education in Professional Learning

Communities Xuefeng Huang, 2018-06-20 This book explores the unique experiences of a sister school network in Canada and China contextualized through the lens of the Reciprocal Learning Project which supports the relationship between a school network and teacher education exchange program of two countries Huang uses theoretical viewpoints from teacher learning and comparative education research to analyse and interpret what has happened in the emerging cross cultural school network The book juxtaposes teacher learning and comparative education research from Shanghai and Ontario as teachers in the two places interact and provides detailed descriptions of teacher collaboration to show how these collaborations were initiated developed and sustained as well as the impact brought about from these collaborations The book offers a unique opportunity to examine how Canadian and Chinese teachers receive and react to opportunities of cross cultural collaboration and learning

Developing Faculty Learning Communities at Two-Year Colleges Susan Sipple, Robin Lightner, 2023-07-03 This book introduces community college faculty and faculty developers to the use of faculty learning communities FLCs as a means for faculty themselves to investigate and surmount student learning problems they encounter in their classrooms and as an effective and low cost strategy for faculty developers working with few resources to stimulate innovative teaching that leads to student persistence and improved learning outcomes Two year college instructors face the unique challenge of teaching a mix of learners from the developmental to high achievers that requires using a variety of instructional strategies and techniques Even the most experienced teachers can find this diversity demanding Faculty developers at many two year colleges still rely solely on the one day workshop model that while useful rarely results in sustained student centered changes in pedagogy or the curriculum and may not be practicable for the growing cohort of part time faculty members By linking work in the classroom with scholarship and reflection FLCs provide participants with a sense of renewed engagement and stimulate collegial exploration of ways to achieve educational excellence FLCs are usually faculty instigated and cross disciplinary and comprise groups of six to fifteen faculty that work collaboratively through regular meetings over an extended period of time to promote research and an exchange of experiences foster community and develop the scholarship of teaching FLCs alleviate burnout and isolation promote the development testing and peer review of new classroom strategies or technologies and lead to the reenergizing and professionalization of teachers This book introduces the reader to FLCs and to the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning offering examples of application in two year colleges Individual chapters describe among others an FLC set up to support course redesign an Adjunct Connectivity FLC to integrate part time faculty within a department and collaborate on the curriculum a cross disciplinary FLC to promote student self regulated learning and improve academic performance and persistence a critical thinking FLC that sought to define critical thinking in separate disciplines examine interdisciplinary cross over of critical thinking and measure critical thinking more accurately an FLC that researched the transfer of learning and developed strategies to promote students application of their learning across courses and beyond the classroom Each chapter describes the formation of its FLC the processes it engaged in what worked and did not and the outcomes achieved Just as when college faculty fail to remain current in their fields the failure to engage in continuing development of teaching skills will equally lead teaching and learning to suffer When two year college administrators restrain scholarship and reflection as inappropriate for the real work of the institution they are in fact hindering the professionalization of their teaching force that is essential to institutional mission and student success When FLCs are supported by leaders and administrators and faculty learn that collaboration and peer review are valued and even expected as part of being a teaching professional they become intrinsically motivated and committed to collaboratively solving problems setting the institution on a path to becoming a learning organization that is proactive and adept at navigating change

Creating Caring Classrooms Kathleen Gould Lundy, Larry Swartz, 2011 This passionate book is committed to the building of respectful relationships among students teachers and the school community it is about helping kids care more about their work and each other and helping teachers care about their classroom Through active engaging relevant open minded activities students will be encouraged to explore events ideas themes texts stories and relationships from different perspectives and then represent those new understandings in innovative and creative ways
