But during the past thirty years North America's Indigenous image makers, particularly in Canada, have used the changing technologies of film, video, television, and computer to present their peoples' histories, identities, and perspectives. This edited collection of essays, conversations, and interviews combines Indigenous and non-Indigenous voices as it sets changing representations of Indigenous people on screen against broader socio-cultural, ideological, and economic considerations Alliance and Illusion Robert Bothwell, 2011-11-01 Alliance and Illusion is the definitive assessment of the domestic and international aspects of Canadian foreign policy in the modern era. The book concludes with recent Canadian deaths, including the suicides of Amanda Todd and Rehtaeh Parsons as a result of cyberbullying. Complementing the chapters are short vignettes, Murderous Moments, and Tragic Tales that point to broader themes and issues The book also contains a number of Active History exercises such as activities assignments and primary document analyses A timeline 24 images and further reading suggestions are included America, History and Life ,2001 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991
