Creating Community Life And Learning At Montgomerys Black University:

Creating Community Karl E. Westhauser, Elaine M. Smith, Jennifer A. Fremlin, 2005-09-18 Together the essays present viewpoints that reflect the diverse ethnic cultural and academic backgrounds of the contributors and of the university. Creating Community is informed by the awareness that Historically Black Colleges and Universities HBCUs have responded in significant ways to social changes of the past generation and it addresses questions about the role of the black university in contemporary society. In this way it offers readers the opportunity to understand how issues of diversity identity multiculturalism and race impact Alabama State University in particular and HBCUs in general. Jacket The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Clarence L. Mohr, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2011-05-16 Offering a broad up to date reference to the long history and cultural legacy of education in the American South this timely volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture surveys educational developments practices institutions and politics from the colonial era to the present. With over 130 articles this book covers key topics in education including academic freedom the effects of urbanization on segregation desegregation and resegregation African American and women s education and illiteracy. These entries as well as articles on prominent educators such as Booker T. Washington and C. Vann Woodward and major southern universities colleges and trade schools provide an essential context for understanding the debates and battles that remain deeply imbedded in southern education. Framed by Clarence Mohr s historically rich introductory overview the essays in this volume comprise a greatly expanded and thoroughly updated survey of the shifting southern education landscape and its development over the span of four centuries. New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture, V. 17 Clarence L.
