Creation Regained Biblical Basics For A Reformational Worldview:

Creation Regained Albert M. Wolters, 1985 Creation Regained Albert M. Wolters, 1985 Worldview David K. Naugle, 2002-07-16 Conceiving of Christianity as a worldview has been one of the most significant events in the church in the last 150 years In this new book David Naugle provides the best discussion yet of the history and contemporary use of worldview as a totalizing approach to faith and life This informative volume first locates the origin of worldview in the writings of Immanuel Kant and surveys the rapid proliferation of its use throughout the English speaking world Naugle then provides the first study ever undertaken of the insights of major Western philosophers on the subject of worldview and offers an original examination of the role this concept has played in the natural and social sciences Finally Naugle gives the concept biblical and theological grounding exploring the unique ways that worldview has been used in the Evangelical Orthodox and Catholic traditions This clear presentation of the concept of worldview will be valuable to a wide range of readers

Everyday Theology (Cultural Exegesis) Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Charles A. Anderson, Michael J. Sleasman, 2007-03-01 Everyday theology is the reflective and practical task of living each day as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ In other words theology is not just for Sundays and it s not just for professional theologians Everyday Theology teaches all Christians how to get the theological lay of the land It enables them to become more conscious of the culture they inhabit every day so that they can understand how it affects them and how they can affect it If theology is the ministry of the Word to the world everyday theologians need to know something about that world and Everyday Theology shows them how to understand their culture make an impact on it Engaging and full of fresh young voices this book is the first in the new Cultural Exegesis series

Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God s people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit s transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God s people In other words God s people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel

Living in the Lamblight Hans Boersma, 2001-01-08 In recent decades many fundamental Christian assumptions about the nature of God and the world have come under attack No longer can one assume even in many church circles that historic Christian beliefs about the Trinity and providence are generally accepted or understood Scientific knowledge and new technologies have also presented challenges for the church How for example should Christians understand the ecological crisis And how should the opening chapters of Genesis be understood in an age of genetic research and evolutionary science This collection of essays attempts to chart a faithful path for postmodern

Christians exploring the foundational ideas and concepts of a Christian worldview and suggesting their implications for Christian living today Contributors Hans Boersma John Cooper Marva J Dawn Michael W Goheen Christopher D Marshall Arnold E Sikkema John G Stackhouse Jr Rikki E Watts John R Wood Whoever Controls the Schools Rules the World Gary DeMar,2007 Abraham Kuyper Richard J. Mouw,2011-06-11 Richard Mouw was first drawn to Abraham Kuyper s writings about public life in the turbulent 1960s As he struggled to find the right Christian stance toward big social issues such as the civil rights movement and the Vietnam War Mouw discovered Kuyper s Lectures on Calvinism and with it a robust vision of active Christian involvement in public life that has guided him ever since In this short and personal introduction Mouw sets forth Kuyper s main ideas on Christian cultural discipleship including his views on sphere sovereignty the antithesis common grace and more Mouw looks at ways to update and in some places even correct Kuyper s thought as he applies it to such twenty first century issues as religious and cultural pluralism technology and the challenge of Islam Education for Hope John E Hull,2023-01-28 This book traces the little known history of an alternative school system erected in Canada by post WWII Dutch Neo Calvinist immigrants In less than four decades this community established a kindergarten to university education system that extended from Ottawa Ontario to Victoria BC This remarkable tradition of education imagines the school as a dissident and transformational social institution While this book offers the narrative of faith based tradition of education the author makes a strong case that educators from diverse ideological backgrounds can learn important lessons from it about the implementation of an alternative educational vision teacher led curriculum reform and a self formative pedagogy To supplement this narrative the author also provides a separate set of theoretical discussions on key issues in school reform as well as his memoir as an educator and curriculum designer within this tradition Engaging Religions and Worldviews in Africa Yusufu Turaki,2020-04-30 In a world of increasing globalization we live amidst a clash of cultures religions and worldviews each battling for the human heart and mind In this in depth study Yusufu Turaki offers a theological framework for engaging this clash of perspectives in Africa where traditional African religions colonialism and exposure to Christianity have each had a lasting impact on contemporary African worldviews Professor Turaki undertakes a systematic analysis of the nature of African Traditional Religion its complex history with Christianity and the need for African Christian theology to address its cultural and historical roots effectively He provides both a conceptual framework and practical guide for engaging African cultures and religions with compassion understanding and a firm foundation rooted in scriptural truth This book is an excellent resource for students of religion and theology as well as those interested in Africa s traditional heritage or drawn to the important work of cross cultural and inter religious dialogue The Pedagogy of Shalom HeeKap Lee,Paul Kaak,2016-11-25 Based on the teachings of Jesus and a biblical foundation this book presents a new framework for education and teaching referred to as the shalom education model that addresses four essential questions in education why teach what to teach how to teach and who are teachers After explaining the theoretical background of shalom the book investigates a range of contemporary educational issues including gender identity bullying disability linguistic and cultural diversity and social justice and presents practical guidelines that can be applied to classroom teaching The book also emphasizes the role of teachers as missional leaders who help students unlock their full potential Doctrine in Shades of Green Andrew J. Spencer, 2022-01-13 How we come to our conclusions about ethical issues matters as much as the specific policies or practices we commend This book argues that four key doctrines form a theological perspective for environmental ethics They are the key ideas upon which people build their ethics of the environment By looking at the doctrines of revelation creation anthropology and eschatology we can find points of contact to work together more effectively for the common good and have more meaningful debates when our positions differ This book uses examples from four different theological positions ecotheology theological liberalism fundamentalism and evangelicalism to show that a creation positive ethic is possible from all of these positions and it explores why people who stand within various theological streams may engage in environmental issues in diverse ways The Futures of
