Hilary Anne-Marie Mooney

Creation Of The Return Of Christ:

Christ and the New Creation Matthew Y. Emerson, 2013-04-10 In Christ and the New Creation Matthew Emerson takes a fresh approach to understanding New Testament theology by using a canonical methodology. Although typically confined to Old Testament theology, Emerson sees fruitfulness in applying this method to New Testament theology as well. Instead of a thematic or book-by-book analysis, Emerson attempts to trace the primary theological message of the New Testament through paying attention to its narrative and canonical shape. He concludes that the order of the books of the New Testament emphasize the story of Christ's inauguration, commissioning, and consummation of the new creation. The Creation-Mediatorship of Jesus Christ Chul Won Suh, 1982 The Redeemer's Return Arthur W. Pink, Theophany Hilary Anne-Marie Mooney, 2009 Hilary Anne Marie Mooney investigates the notion of theophany in the writings of the early medieval thinker Johannes Scottus Eriugena. She focuses on the creative impulses which he draws from the Scripture and she investigates the influence of theological and philosophical thinkers of the first six Christian centuries on Eriugena. The author considers those passages of Eriugena's writings in which the precise term theophany is used as well as other passages in which the term does not occur but which are nonetheless imbued with the notion of a theophanic appearing of God. These traces of theophanic understanding of the revealing of God are considered within Eriugena's oeuvre as a whole, including his biblical commentaries. In her study, the author maintains that a theophanic structure characterized by four recurring facets may be unearthed in Eriugena's theology of the revealing of God. In the various contexts within which he writes about this divine revealing in his theology of creation, his anthropology, his account of the relationship between human beings and God as seen from the perspective of a Christian spirituality, it is the notion of theophany which he uses to illuminate the relationship between that which is created and its creator. In doing so, he bequeaths a rich theological analysis of the appearing of God to subsequent generations of theologians and shows himself to be both a coherent and creative thinker.

Creation and the Second Coming Dr. Henry M. Morris, 1991-09-01 Possibly the only book of its kind, Creation and the Second Coming captivates the reader by linking our origins with our destiny. Blending biblical stories like Noah and Jesus teaching His disciples, Dr. Henry Morris weaves an intriguing resource for prophecy and creationism buffs. The Whole Gospel for the Whole World Franklin Pyles, Lee Beach, 2016-10-03 Like most Protestant denominations, the Christian and Missionary Alliance (CMA) was founded upon ideas that shaped its vision and ethos throughout its history. Also like most denominations, over time the influence of these ideas on the movement tends to diminish. Denominations like any organization have to consistently revisit their original vision in order to remain vitally sustained by those things that gave it a reason for existing in the first place. This book addresses six key ideas that have shaped the Christian and Missionary Alliance throughout its history: Jesus as our savior, sanctifier, healer, and coming king, which are known as the fourfold gospel, as well as the concepts of Jesus only and world mission. These ideas are at the heart of the CMA identity. However, there has long been a sense within C MA circles that these core ideas are not always given the kind of attention that they deserve so that they can dynamically shape the movement as it faces the challenges of being the church in the twenty first century This volume is a resource for Alliance churches that will help them re engage with the central tenets of Alliance theology and spirituality in a way that will ultimately inspire greater passion for the cause of Christ in the world as it is uniquely expressed through the movement known as the Christian and Missionary Alliance

Imago Dei: Man/Woman Created in the Image of God

George Hobson, 2019-09-30 The question What is human nature is in vogue today Like everything else this concept is being deconstructed in the context of the reigning ideology of individualistic materialism Is there a fixed human nature or is this simply a manipulatable social construct with no objective reference This book says Yes there is the imago Dei man woman created in the image of God Hobson argues that this text from Genesis 1 26 28 is a God given anthropological revelation that establishes the relational bond of human beings with their Creator and also with his creation for which the imago equips us to be responsible stewards Many of Hobson s essays were delivered as talks in parishes They explore from multiple angles the import of the imago Dei for theological and sacramental reflection apologetics aesthetics art and at a hands on practical level for pastoral counseling and inner healing His texts one of which opens with a discussion of genocide contain incisive critiques of the dark side of modernity alongside wide ranging demonstrations of the pertinence of the imago Dei to the current debates about human dignity and rights His book is a ringing call to the church to take the measure of the value of this anthropological revelation for its proclamation of the gospel

A Guide to the Phantom Dark Age Emmet

Scott, 2014-03-01 Scott confronts conventional historians and looks at the evidence archaeological and textual for the proposition that three centuries roughly between 615 and 915 never existed and are phantom years The author shows in detail how no archaeology exists for these three centuries and that the material remains of the seventh century closely resemble those of the tenth and lie directly beneath them This is the first book on this topic in the English language though Heribert Illig s books on the same topic Das erfundene Mittelalter and Wer hat an der Uhr gedreht have been best sellers in German speaking Europe

THE TRUTH OF THE ORIGIN OF THE UNIVERSE

Sabrie Soloman, 2024-06-12 God s Signature in DNA The Rapture The Great Tribulation Armageddon War World War III The concept of God s signature in DNA is a fascinating topic that explores the intricate design and complexity of the human genome Many creationists and religious believers see the complexity and precision of DNA as evidence of an intelligent designer or creator pointing to the existence of a higher power The idea that DNA contains a signature of God s handiwork is a theme often discussed in religious and philosophical circles highlighting the wonder and mystery of life itself Moving on to the topics of the Rapture the Great Tribulation and the Armageddon War these concepts are deeply embedded in Christian eschatology or the study of end times The Rapture is believed to be the biblical event where believers are taken up to heaven to be with God before a period of tribulation and judgment on earth The Great Tribulation is a period of intense suffering and turmoil that is prophesied to occur before the final battle of Armageddon believed by the author to be World War III. These apocalyptic beliefs have captured the imagination of many believers and have inspired countless books, movies, and religious teachings. While interpretations of these events may vary among different Christian denominations, the underlying message of hope, redemption, and faith in the face of adversity remains a central theme.

The Incarnation as God's First Intention Edwin Chr. van Driel, 2025-10-21. In The Incarnation as God's First Intention, Edwin Chr. van Driel advocates a transformative perspective on the incarnation, proposing that God's decision to become incarnate was not a response to human sin but was instead God's first and foundational intention. Engaging the historical and theological roots of this supralapsarian view before the fall, Christology van Driel, a leading scholar on the topic, invites readers to reconsider long-held views on God's engagement with creation. With clarity and depth, van Driel unpacks how understanding the incarnation as God's original purpose reshapes the doctrines of creation, election, salvation, and eschatology. His insights offer a fresh framework for the church's mission in today's world, suggesting that God's presence with us is not merely a remedy for human fallenness but rather God's first intention and ultimate goal for creation. Written for students, theologians, and all who seek a deeper understanding of God's relation to the world, this book challenges readers to see the incarnation as God's dwelling among us as God's central purpose.

The Source of Hope John S. Hammett, 2025-08-01. In The Source of Hope, John Hammett crafts a detailed and accessible introduction to the discipline of eschatology.

The Theology of William Porcher DuBose Robert Boak Slocum, 2000. Recognized and appreciated as one of the most original and creative theologians in the Episcopal Church's history, William Porcher DuBose (1836-1918) published seven books of theological importance, including an autobiographical work, and his life is commemorated in a lesser feast of the Episcopal Calendar of the Church Year. Despite making significant contributions to Anglicanism, DuBose's works are, according to Robert Boak Slocum, more widely honored than understood or applied to questions facing theologians and lay people today. To fill the gap of knowledge and understanding, Slocum's study of DuBose draws parallels between essential experiences in his life and major themes in his published theology.
