Creative Colour Transparencies Wout Gilhuis,1980-01-01      Transparency and Dissimulation Verena

Lobsien,2010-05-27 Transparency and Dissimulation analyses the configurations of ancient neoplatonism in early modern English texts In looking closely at poems and prose writings by authors as diverse as Thomas Wyatt Philip Sidney Edmund Spenser John Donne Edward Herbert Andrew Marvell Thomas Traherne Thomas Browne and last not least Aphra Behn this study attempts to map the outlines of a neoplatonic aesthetics in literary practice as well as to chart its transformative potential in the shifting contexts of cultural turbulency and denominational conflict in 16th and 17th century England As part of a new contextually aware aesthetics it seeks to determine some of the functions neoplatonic structures such as forms of recursivity or certain modes of apophatic speech are capable of fulfilling in combination and interaction with other heterogeneous or even ideologically incompatible elements What emerges is a surprisingly versatile poetics of excess and enigma with strong Plotinian and Erigenist accents This appears to need the traditional ingredients of petrarchism or courtliness only as material for the formation of new and dynamic wholes revealing its radical metaphysical potential above all in the way it helps to resist the easy answers in religion science or the fashions of libertine love      Creative Color in

Photography Arthur Rothstein,1963      Marine Resource Mapping M. J. A. Butler,1987-01-01 Practical guidelines and theoretical principles of cartography are explained with particular relevance to mapping data of relevance to fisheries especially for developing countries The concepts of scale and relief as they apply both to coastal planning and to interpretation and display of marine and fishermen s charts are outlined Design criteria are suggested for preparing maps and other visual displays including basic questions of visual clarity ease of interpretation and the use of colour and alphanumeric information The use of supplementary graphics together with thematic mapping is encouraged in providing an integrated approach to display of geographic and other types of information of relevance to fisheries and marine activities Some guidelines equipment and procedures are suggested for graphics drafting and reproduction of illustrative material Work plans and interview formats are suggested for field collection of basic data as well as some suggestions for the use of aerial photography and for photointerpretation Twelve case studies discussing the approaches used to prepare existing marine resource maps are given and analysed A short directory of training institutes in related fields is provided

Transparency in Global Environmental Governance Aarti Gupta,2014-07-11 Transparency is increasingly seen as part of the solution to a complex array of economic political and ethical problems in an interconnected world It is often assumed to result in more accountable and effective governance The transparency turn in global environmental governance in particular is evident in a wide range of international agreements voluntary disclosure initiatives and public private partnerships This is the first book to scrutinise this transparency turn critically and to investigate whether it is a broadly transformative force or plays a more limited instrumental role      The Grove Encyclopedia of Materials and Techniques
