Wyndham Lewis the Radical Carmelo Cunchillos Jaime,2007 This volume about the modernist writer and artist Wyndham Lewis 1882 1957 presents him as a radical figure in twentieth century modernism The authors rediscover aspects of Lewis s work which show how his fiction challenges modernist norms and how his acute and wide ranging critique of culture has a vital contemporary relevance Lewis s range is extraordinary it covers Nietzsche as well as classic cinema Renaissance art and English classicism Being politically conservative he had nonetheless a place on the political left and he can be seen as a postmodernist before his time These essays by leading Spanish and British specialists reveal Lewis as one of the key modernists of our time

The Carver Chronotope G.P. Lainsbury,2004-02-24 Raymond Carver s fiction is widely known for its careful documentation of lower middle class North America in the 1970s and 80s Building upon the realist understanding of Carver s work Raymond Carver s Chronotope uses a central concept of Bakhtin s novelistics to formulate a new context for understanding the celebrated author s minimalist fiction G P Lainsbury describes the critical reception of Carver s work and stakes out his own intellectual and imaginative territory by arguing that Carver s fiction can be understood as diffuse fragmentary and randomly ordered Offering a fresh analysis of Carver s body of work this book offers an extensive meditation on this major figure in postmodern U S fiction

Hemingway and Africa Miriam B. Mandel,2011 New scholarly essays providing a multifaceted approach to the role of Africa in Hemingway s life and work

Teaching Australian Literature Brenton Doecke,Larissa McLean Davies,Philip Mead,2011 What role should Australian literature play in the school curriculum What principles should guide our selection of Australian texts To what extent should concepts of the nation and a national identity frame the study of Australian writing What do we imagine Australian literature to be How do English teachers go about engaging their students in reading Australian texts This volume brings together teachers teacher educators creative writers and literary scholars in a joint inquiry that takes a fresh look at what it means to teach Australian literature The immediate occasion for the publication of these essays is the implementation of The Australian Curriculum English which several contributors subject to critical scrutiny In doing so they question the way that literature teaching is currently being constructed by standards based reforms not only in Australia but elsewhere The essays assembled in this volume transcend the divisions that have sometimes marred debates about the place of Australian literature in the school curriculum They all recognise the complexity of what secondary English teachers do in their efforts to engage young people in a rich and meaningful curriculum They also highlight the need for both secondary and tertiary educators to cultivate an awareness of the cultural and intellectual traditions that mediate their professional practice and to encourage a critically responsive pedagogy Barry Hannah Ruth D.
