Craft For A Dry Lake:

Craft for a Dry Lake by Kim Mahood Kevin Brophy, 2002 CRM, 1992 Blush: Faces of Shame Elspeth Probyn, 2005 Travel Writing, Form, and Empire Julia Kuehn, Paul Smethurst, 2008-11-19 This volume aims to explore more widely and more locally the expression of imperialist discourse in travel writing and also to locate within contemporary travel writing attempts to evade or re engage with the power politics of imperialist discourse The Littoral Zone CA. Cranston, Robert Zeller, 2007 In this the first collection of ecocritical essays devoted to Australian contexts and their writers Australian and USA scholars settlers invaders temporary visa holders comment on the transliteration of sea land and interior through the works of major and minor authors and through their own experience with the bioregion The littoral zone is the starting point in this fresh approach to reading literature and is organised around the natural environment rainforest desert mountains coast islands Antarctica There s the beach where sexual and spiritual crises occur the Wheatbelt area the most visible clearance line on the planet desert literature camel trekking and the transformation of a salt flat into an inland island New Age literature that appropriates Aboriginals and their cultures as the healing poultice for an ailing and dispirited West a re examination of pastoralism and the feet of millions of sheep that have done unspeakable damage to soils an inquiry into whether Judith Wright s work can persuade us to rejoice in the world an investigation of the Limestone Plains home of the bush capital and the bogong moth of bananas cane toads and the Great Barrier Reef in tropic Queensland of national parks and guesthouses where the mountains meet the sea a discursive approach to temperate islands that covers sealing Soldier Settlement and sea country pastoral and finally to Antarctica where an initial utopian approach gives way to an emphasis on its stark timeless icescape as a minimalist backdrop for human dramas The author terrain is no less grand in its scope poets playwrights novelists and non fiction writers are discussed across the broad range of contexts that constitutes the littoral zone known as Australia CRM Bulletin United States. National Park Service. Cultural Resources Management Division, 1991 Outback and Out West Tom Lynch, 2022-11 Outback and Out West examines the ecological consequences of a settler colonial imaginary by comparing expressions of settler colonialism in the literature of the American West and Australian Outback Tom Lynch traces exogenous domination in both regions which resulted in many similar means of settlement including pastoralism homestead acts afforestation efforts and bioregional efforts at belonging Lynch pairs the two nations texts to show how an analysis at the intersection of ecocriticism and settler colonialism requires a new canon that is responsive to the social cultural and ecological difficulties created by settlement in the West and Outback Outback and Out West draws out the regional Anthropocene dimensions of settler colonialism considering such pressing environmental problems as habitat loss groundwater depletion and mass extinctions Lynch studies the implications of our settlement heritage on history art and the environment through the cross national comparison of spaces He asserts that bringing an ecocritical awareness to settler colonial theory is essential for reconciliation with dispossessed Indigenous populations as well as reparations for ecological damages as we work to decolonize engagement with and literature about these places
