Craft Of Verse Oxford Poetry Essay:

The Craft of Verse Humbert Wolfe, 1928 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature. The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis, articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition. The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries. Bookseller's catalogues Myers and co, ltd, 1891 James Joyce's 'Work in Progress' Dirk Van Hulle, 2016-04-28 The text of Finnegans Wake is not as monolithic as it might seem. It grew out of a set of short vignettes, sections and fragments. Several of these sections which James Joyce confidently claimed would fuse of themselves are still recognizable in the text of Finnegans Wake. And while they are undeniably integrated very skillfully, they also function separately. In this publication history Dirk Van Hulle examines the interaction between the private composition process and the public life of Joyce's Work in Progress from the creation of the separate sections through their publication in periodicals and as separately published sections. Van Hulle highlights the beautifully crafted editions published by fine arts presses and Joyce's encouragement of his daughter's creative talents even as his own creative process was slowing down in the 1930s. All of these pre-book publications were alive in both bibliographic and textual terms as Joyce continually changed the texts in order to prepare the book publication of Finnegans Wake. Van Hulle's book offers a fresh perspective on these texts showing that they are not just preparatory versions of Finnegans Wake but a Work in Progress in their own right. The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Poetry Matthew Bevis, 2013-10 The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Poetry offers an authoritative collection of original essays and is an essential resource for those interested in Victorian poetry and poetics. Catalog of Copyright Entries. New Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1929 Part 1 Books Group 1 v 25 Nos 1 121 March December 1928 The Publisher and Bookseller, 1928 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Manuscripts, Upon Papyrus, Vellum, and Paper, in Various Languages Thorpe, Thomas, firm, booksellers, London, 1843 Comparative Essays on the Poetry and Prose of John Donne and George Herbert Russell M. Hillier, Robert W. Reeder, 2021-10-15 This book brings together ten essays on John Donne and George Herbert composed by an international group of scholars. The volume represents the first collection of its kind to draw close connections between these two distinguished early modern thinkers and poets who are justly coupled because of their personal and artistic association. The contributors' distinctive new approaches and insights illuminate a variety of topics and fields while suggesting new directions that future study of Donne and Herbert might take. Some chapters explore concrete instances of collaboration or communication between Donne and Herbert and others find fresh ways to contextualize the Donnean and Herbertian lyric carefully setting the poetry alongside discourses of apophatic theology or early modern political theory while still others link Herbert's verse to Donne's devotional prose Several chapters establish specific theological and aesthetic grounds for comparison considering Donne and Herbert's respective positions on religious assurance comic sensibility and virtuosity with poetic endings
