Canadian Crafts Council 1974 the Canadian Fine Crafts exhibition at Expo 67 and the In Praise of Hands exhibition of 1974 Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexploited materials this richly documented survey includes descriptions and illustrations of significant works and identifies the challenges that lie ahead for professional crafts in Canada Framing Our Past Sharon Anne Cook, Lorna R. essential means to sustain a cultural community under threat or a rejection of the imposed definitions by a dominant culture. The broader effects of urbanizing imperial and globalizing projects shape the multiple contexts of interaction and resistance that can define craft ventures through place and time. By attending to the political histories of craft objects and their makers over the last few centuries, these essays reveal the creative persistence of various hand mediums and the material debates they represented.
