Spillway Ian Pople, 2022-06-30 Ian Pople is a man of the world He has travelled and taught in the UK Greece Sudan and Saudi Arabia His poems explore England the larger world and how changing perspectives readjust the sense of England and of home They deal with borders crossings closing boundaries They are about transitions in space and time the ways life and relationships change and adapt to illness love estrangement and loss The traveller changes identities as he moves responding to different surroundings and the early poems collected here provide a varied retrospect moving through Africa Europe and Asia so that we read the more recent work from a different perspective The travel poems explore the range of reactions appropriations and misappropriations as physical and psychological boundaries are crossed More recent writing responds to music and the visual arts using assemblages or bricolage to convey the painfully familiar experience of displacement dislocation There are poems that answer back to figures from jazz history Roland Kirk Dupree Bolton and Pat Metheny among them It is wonderful to encounter such an accomplished and varied body of work which shares with us its vivid spaces and tones Pople a lucid critic of modern and contemporary especially American poetry is an original artist in his own right
