Wesley Null, 2009-11-01 The American Educational History Journal is a peer reviewed national research journal devoted to the examination of educational topics using perspectives from a variety of disciplines The editors of AEHJ encourage communication between scholars from numerous disciplines nationalities institutions and backgrounds Authors come from a variety of disciplines including political science curriculum history philosophy teacher education and educational leadership Acceptance for publication in AEHJ requires that each author present a well articulated argument that deals substantively with questions of educational history Creating America McDougal Littell, 2002* Creating America: Beginnings Through Reconstruction, 2002-05-15 Creating America Holt McDougal, 2003 Arkansas History for Young People (Teacher's Edition) Shay E. Hopper, T. Harri Baker, Jane Browning, 2008-07-01 Once again the State of Arkansas has adopted An Arkansas History for Young People as an official textbook for middle level and or junior high school Arkansas history classes This fourth edition incorporates new research done after extensive consultations with middle level and junior high teachers from across the state curriculum coordinators literacy coaches university professors and students themselves It includes a multitude of new features and is now full color throughout This edition has been completely redesigned and now features a modern format and new graphics suitable for many levels of student readers Creating America, 2002-02-02 Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 The Development of the Alternative Black Curriculum, 1890-1940 Alana D. Murray, 2018-06-26 This book examines black intellectual thought during from 1890 1940 and its relationship to the development of the alternative black curriculum in social studies Inquiry into the alternative black curriculum is a multi disciplinary project it requires an intersectional approach that draws on social studies research educational history and black history Exploring the gendered construction of the alternative black curriculum Murray considers the impact of Carter G Woodson and W E B DuBois in creating the alternative black curriculum in social studies and its subsequent relationship to the work of black women in the field and how black women developed the alternative black curriculum in private and public settings Creating America Oklahoma Beginnings Through Reconstruction, Grades 6-8 McDougal Littell, 2006-08-23 Founding Myths Ray Raphael, 2014-07-04 The tenth anniversary edition of the book that showed why we must move past historical nonsense so that a truer more democratic national record can emerge School Library Journal Originally published to universal acclaim award winning historian Ray Raphael s Founding Myths has since established itself as a landmark of historical myth busting With Raphael s trademark wit and flair Founding Myths exposed the errors and inventions in America's most cherished tales from Paul Revere's famous ride to Patrick Henry's Liberty or Death speech. For the thousands who have been captivated by Raphael's eye-opening accounts, history has never been the same. In this revised tenth anniversary edition, Raphael revisits the original myths and further explores their evolution over time, uncovering new stories and peeling back new layers of misinformation. This new edition also examines the highly politicized debates over America's past as well as how our approach to history in school reinforces rather than corrects historical mistakes. A book that explores the truth behind the stories of the making of our nation. National Public Radio: this revised edition of Founding Myths will be a welcome resource for anyone seeking to separate historical fact from fiction. Creating America McDougal Littell, 2002* Official Adoption List for ..., 2002 Creating America, 2006. Combines motivating stories with research-based instruction that helps students improve their reading and social studies skills as they discover the past. Every lesson of the textbook is keyed to California content standards and analysis skills. Re-Membering History in Student and Teacher Learning Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2014-03-05. What kind of social studies knowledge can stimulate a critical and ethical dialog with the past and present? Re-Membering History in Student and Teacher Learning answers this question by explaining and illustrating a process of historical recovery that merges Afrocentric theory and principles of culturally informed curricular practice to reconnect multiple knowledge bases and experiences. In the case studies presented, K-12 practitioners, teacher educators, preservice teachers, and parents use this praxis to produce and then study the use of democratized student texts; they step outside of reproducing standard school experiences to engage in conscious inquiry about their shared present as a continuance of a shared past. This volume exemplifies not only why instructional materials, including most so-called multicultural materials, obstruct democratized knowledge but also takes the next step to construct and then study how re-membered student texts can be used. Case study findings reveal improved student outcomes, enhanced relationships between teachers and families and teachers and students, and a closer connection for children and adults to their heritage. Books Out Loud, 2007. The Atlantic Monthly, 1896. Creating America: Beginnings Through Reconstruction McDougal Littell Incorporated, 2005-01-01. Reader's Guide to American History Peter J. Parish, 2013-06-17. There are so many books on so many aspects of the history of the United States offering such a wide variety of interpretations that students, teachers, scholars, and librarians often need help and advice on how to find what they want. The Reader's Guide to American History is designed to meet that need by adopting a new and constructive approach to the appreciation of this rich historiography. Each of the 600 entries on topics in political, social, and economic history describes and evaluates some 6 to 12 books on the topic, providing guidance to the reader on everything from broad surveys and interpretive works to specialized monographs. The entries are devoted to events and individuals as well as broader themes and are written by a team of well over 200 contributors, all scholars of American history.
