United Church Board for Homeland Ministries,1845 The Pastor As Church Leader and Educator Herbert W. Byrne,2006-10 From Generation to Generation Charles R. Foster,2012-10-02 Mainline Protestant congregations face a profound adaptive challenge In the midst of significant social cultural and technological change the denominations they represent generally abandoned a view of education capable of maintaining and renewing their faith traditions through their children and youth New curriculum resources and innovative pedagogical strategies appropriated from the marketplace of religious education options have not met the challenge A transformation of consciousness is required in congregations seeking a future through their children It involves the exercise of an ecclesial imagination to reclaim a view of education rooted in the revitalization of their religious traditions in the past and re envisioning the congregation as a catechetical culture of faith formation The Living Church ,1942 Planning for Christian Education Carol Fouts Krau,1994
Christian Education in the Small Membership Church Dr. Karen B. Tye,2010-09-01 Christian Education is part of the vital ministry of all churches but especially of small membership churches In a culture that places great value on numbers small membership churches often mistakenly see themselves at a disadvantage Small membership churches can create wonderful opportunities to form and disciple faithful followers of Jesus Christ In offering viable Christian Education the role of the pastor is critical This book invites pastors to lead their small membership churches to develop an imaginative and holistic vision of Christian Education Read the Introduction
