Creating a Christian Lifestyle Carl Koch,1988 Creating an Atmosphere for the Promises of God Melba K. Wiggins,2014-12-05 Only God has the power to bring about changes in your life The power of change is already within you because He lives on the inside of you But you want to change yourself and not allow Him to do His job What is normal to a believer is always going to be abnormal to the world Learn how to increase your ability to create the atmosphere for the promises of God in your life and the lives of those whom you love and come in daily contact with As a Christian you have the responsibility of establishing the atmosphere stronger than anybody else that has no relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ What makes you different from everybody else is that you have the Holy Spirit dwelling on the inside of you Who gives you the power to create a stronger atmosphere You already have what it takes to affect the atmosphere In order to take back what the devil has taken away from you You are to start first by taking back your atmosphere for the promises of God

God's Interpreters: The Making of an American Mission and an African Church Les Switzer,2023-10-20 This study of the pioneer mission to the Zulu people differs from others in South African mission studies by offering a more nuanced understanding of the relationship between mission and church during the formative stages in the making of an African Christian community both in America and in British Natal Critical scholars continue to view the Western mission enterprise as an adjunct if not a tool of colonialism or at best a clash of cultures between white mission powerbrokers and powerless black Christian acolytes The author argues that they were partners from the beginning and in this endeavor the Christian identities of the missionaries as well as the Zulu were changed forever Educational Ministry in the Logic of the Spirit James E. Loder,2018-07-20 In November 2001 James E Loder Jr Professor of the Philosophy of Christian Education for forty years at Princeton Theological Seminary suddenly died He was a creative and profound thinker who had just completed a promising book In it he developed a compelling interdisciplinary model to disclose how the divine Spirit affirms reconstitutes and transforms the human spirit to bring new energy and creativity into human experience He called it redemptive transformation You now hold that book in your hands Those who know Loder's work are confident that Educational Ministry in the Logic of the Spirit though delayed for over fifteen years will still become the best introduction to his complex thought More important it offers the imaginative means by which we may learn to attune ourselves and our faith communities to what God is doing in our fractured distracted and self destructive world to bring about a revolution of love the fruit of Christ's Spirit and the center of our human vocation A Crown and a Cross Andrew Goodhead,2010-04-09 This book critically reviews the origins development and decline of the Class Meeting Beginning with an overview of the religious and societal milieu from the sixteenth century and examining the heritage of John and Charles Wesley the inheritance John Wesley took from the past is studied The rise of the Anglican Unitary Societies is considered and Wesley's active work within those societies drawn out The arrival of the Moravians in London in 1738 to form a group for Germans resident in London influenced many of the Anglican society members not least the Wesley brothers These influences are also considered before the Methodist movement and particularly the Class Meeting are considered in detail This book is unique in its drawing together the manner of religious association experienced in the Evangelical Revival and aims to show how Methodism was a fusion of pre-existing ideas formed into a new working model of religious association Paramount to the success of the early Methodist was the Class Meeting This book draws on testimony diary and journal records to provide first hand accounts of people's lives being changed through attendance at the Class Meeting and its making possible growth in grace and holiness In the early period of Methodism the Class Meeting was the crown to Methodist identity An analysis of the primary aims of this meeting which gave the Methodist people their distinct characteristics is followed by a study of the social identity and group processes that occurred when prospective members considered joining the Methodists The decline of the Class Meeting to 1791 forms the concluding chapters and using three classic sociological models Weber routinisation Durkheim totemism and Troeltsch primary secondary religion as themes the reasons why the class became a cross are examined Journal diary and testimonial material support the Methodists declining interest in the class that led to its irrelevance for a people seeking respectability rather than an immediate encounter with God

From Our Christian Heritage C. Douglas Weaver, 1997 Weaver has retrieved from obscurity the rich treasures of Christian tradition from the 1st through 20th centuries and made them meaningfully accessible for preachers teachers worship and study leaders students devotional readers and persons interested in the history of the church

Ahmadi and Christian Socio-Political Responses to Pakistan's Blasphemy Laws Qaiser Julius, 2017-09-30 The roots of Pakistan's blasphemy laws can be traced back to the British colonial rule in India but their harsher clauses were added to the Pakistan Penal Code during a wave of intense Islamization in the 1980s Everyone in Pakistan is threatened by the misuse of these laws even Muslims however a disproportionate number of victims targeted by these laws have come from two minority groups the Ahmadis and Christians Dr Qaiser Julius focuses on how these two groups have been affected by Pakistan's blasphemy laws their different reactions to these laws and more specifically why they are responding differently despite living under the same circumstances In this well structured and understandable study Julius provides a valuable tool for Christians to understand what it means to be a minority in a hostile culture This thorough analysis presents a way forward for the Christian church in Pakistan providing hope amidst the discrimination and persecution

Everyday Christianity R. Paul Stevens, Robert Banks, 2018-12-01 I am thrilled to know that The Complete Book of Everyday Christianity is being relaunched A well worn first edition of this book sits next to my office desk and I consult it often There is no better collection of everyday issues examined from a Christian perspective A wide variety of topics are addressed with a cleverly balanced combination of academic and practical perspectives informed by thoughtful biblical and theological reflection This is a wonderfully useful tool I am pleased that it will be available to resource a new generation of Christians who are eager to understand more about what it means to follow Christ in every aspect of life Alistair Mackenzie Senior Lecturer School of Theology Mission and Ministry Laidlaw College Christchurch New Zealand Also Director of Faith at Work NZ

Making Sense of AIDS Leslie Butt, Richard Eves, 2008-05-09 In Melanesia rates of HIV infection are among the highest in the Pacific and increasing rapidly with grave humanitarian development and political implications There is a great need for social research on HIV AIDS in the region to provide better insights into the sensitive issues surrounding HIV transmission This collection the first book on HIV and AIDS in the Pacific region gathers together stunning and original accounts of the often surprising ways that people make sense of the AIDS epidemic in various parts of Melanesia The volume addresses substantive issues concerning AIDS and contemporary sexualities relations of power and moralities themes that provide a powerful backdrop for twenty first century understandings of the tensions between sexuality religion and politics in many parts of the world

The Disciple-Making Church Bill Hull, 2010-06-15 Scripture places high priority on the discipling capacity of the church This book shows how to accomplish it Foreword by Howard Ball

Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book s wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry
