Creation A Novel:

Creation Gore Vidal, 2018-08-22 Once again the incomparable Gore Vidal interprets and animates history this time in a panoramic tour of the 5th century B C and embellishes it with his own ironic humor brilliant insights and piercing observations We meet a vast array of historical figures in a staggering novel of love war philosophy and adventure There isn't a page of CREATION that doesn't inform and very few pages that do not delight John Leonard The New York Times Book of Creation Ran Lahav, 2017-07-17 Waves of accidents suddenly plague our world Only the ancient society of Keepers understands that the Blessing is dwindling and life is in peril These men and women live secretly among us are descendants of the Biblical Patriarchs who were told Through you all the people of the earth shall be blessed Will they be able to restore the Blessing to the earth and prevent the approaching doom This fast pace breathtaking modern fantasy spans four millennia of human history from Biblical times to the 21st century and crisscrosses the world between New York Jerusalem Switzerland Algeria and the entire world Psychotherapy as a Developmental Process Michael Basseches, Michael F.

Mascolo, 2009-08-05 For all those engaged in psychotherapy practice regardless of modality or approach the goal of this book is to provide a framework and method for thinking about their work that allows for critical reflection on their own successes and disappointments and on the similarities and differences among their own and other practitioners work with different clients The authors use a novel common factors approach based on the idea that some form of development is the outcome of all effective psychotherapy despite other differences that may exist While most existing psychotherapy research focuses on treatment outcomes primarily in terms of symptom reduction this book offers an alternative research approach that systematically tracks the psychotherapy process itself and describes each case's unique developmental outcome In particular Basseches Mascolo focus on the questions of what kinds of therapeutic resources therapists are offering to their clients and whether and how clients are able to make use of these resources in the service of their own development The goal is to provide a descriptive framework that can be used to appreciate the highly varied ways in which particular therapists tailor their work to unique clients developmental needs while at the same time offering a prescription of a more rigorous method for recognizing and correcting the problem when a particular therapist's way of working is not serving the client well Ideally this type of process focused research will complement existing outcome research and be more likely than further symptom reduction studies to result in the improvement of overall psychotherapy success rates COMING HOME: The Genesis

Ewing, Ritva Laury, 2024-08-01 Although there is a large literature on referentiality going back to at least the nineteenth and early twentieth century much of this early work is based on constructed data and most of it is on English The chapters in this volume contribute to a growing body of work that examines referentiality through naturalistic data in context Taking an interactional approach to non referentiality contributors to this volume ask how participants talk in real time about persons and things as individuals or as categories and what distinguishes referential from nonreferential specific from nonspecific and generic from nongeneric Crucially we ask whether these distinctions even matter to participants in conversation and if they do what the evidence for that would be Contributors investigate these issues using data from conversational interaction in a variety of social contexts including between close friends and family to more casual acquaintances in service encounters and between adults and children and in a range of languages English Finnish French Indonesian Japanese and Mandarin Collectively the chapters develop insights showing that reference is often fluid dynamic and indeterminate that referential indeterminacy is typically unproblematic for participants that shifts in referentiality tend to be tied to specific social goals and that reference and referentiality emerge dialogically and interactionally Religion in the English Novel Michael Giffin,2020-10-23 Romanticism marked a dramatic turning point in philosophy and aesthetics The shift from Classicism to Romanticism to Modernism and its Posts is paralleled in the shift from Kant to Hegel to Nietzsche to Derrida The central notions of the Enlightenment nature progress rationalism and rejection of the irrational are opposed by the central notions of the Counter Enlightenment relativism vitalism anti rationalism and sense of the organic Then there is the idea of freedom at the heart of the West s religious and secular vocabularies The authors discussed in this study ask their readers to consider the question of freedom and constraints upon it For some freedom is found in Christianity for others Christianity is freedom s enemy The Myth of the Lost Paradise in the Novels of Jacques Poulin Paul Socken,1993 Socken analyzes the shape and direction of Poulin s creation narratives as they evolve in the novels and demonstrates their presence from the earliest quasi political Un cheval pour mon royaume to the highly introspective Le Vieux Chagrin The novels move from an outer directed concept of the lost paradise as a state to be attained beyond the self to a sense of the lost paradise as the kingdom within achievable first on the individual level as self knowledge and only afterwards on the social level Poulin introduces the theme of the soul and his personal concept of it as the soul for him is proof of the inner life that embodies the qualities of tranquility and tenderness associated with the lost paradise Lost paradise literature is universal and timeless Poulin s portrayal is placed in historical context so that his contribution to the genre can be fully appreciated Referring to studies by such critics as Mircea Eliade Northrop Frye Jerome S Bruner and Jack J
