Towards a Global Music Theory Mark Hijleh, 2016-02-24 Since the beginning of the twentieth century the cross pollenization of world musical materials and practices has accelerated precipitously due in large part to advances in higher speed communications and travel We live now in a world of global musical practice that will only continue to blossom and develop through the twenty first century and beyond Yet music theory as an academic discipline is only just beginning to respond to such a milieu Conferences workshops and curricula are for the first time beginning to develop around the theme of world music theory as students teachers and researchers recognize the need for analytical concepts and methods applicable to a wider range of human musics not least the hybrid musics that influence and increasingly define more and more of the world s musical practices Towards a Global Music Theory proposes a number of such concepts and methods stemming from durational and acoustic relationships between twos and threes as manifested in various interrelated aspects of music including rhythm melody harmony process texture timbre and tuning and offers suggestions for how such concepts and methods might be applied effectively to the understanding of music in a variety of contexts While some of the bases for this foray into possible methods for a twenty first century music theory lie along well established acoustical and psycho acoustical lines Dr Mark Hijleh presents a broad attempt to apply them conceptually and comprehensively to a variety of musics in a relevant way that can be readily apprehended and applied by students scholars and teachers

Schenker's Argument and the Claims of Music Theory Leslie David Blasius,1996-10-03 Heinrich Schenker s theoretical and analytical works claim to resubstantiate the unique artistic presence of the canonic work and thus reject those musical disciplines such as psychoacoustics and systematic musicology which derive from the natural sciences In this respect his writing reflects the counter positivism endemic to the German academic discourse of the first decades of the twentieth century The rhetoric of this stance however conceals a sophisticated programme wherein Schenker situates his project in relation to these sciences arguing his reading of the musical text as a synthesis of a descriptive psychology and an explanatory historiography which itself embeds both paleographic and philological assumptions This book rereads Schenker s project as an attempt to reconstruct music theory as a discipline against the background of the empirical musical sciences of the later nineteenth century Emerging Solutions for Musical Arts Education in Africa Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education,2005 Emerging Solutions for Musical arts Education in South Africa offers peer reviewed articles prepared for the 2003 Conference of the Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education in Africa held in Kisumu Maseno Kenya Not only does this publication voice the solutions offered by 31 authors from the African continent and beyond but it presents in a unique and highly accessible fashion the collective voice of the conference participants True to the spirit of ubuntu an individual is only a person through other people their communities this publication is a reflection of the essence of an overarching sub Saharan philosophy the contents represents a conference where papers were not presented but where conference participants engaged to discuss solutions for the musical arts on the African continent While the individual voice has been given its rightful place the collective voice represents an emergent song composed by the scholarly community in oral fashion This publication provides insight into the problems of musical arts education in Africa and solutions for musical arts education Artistic Practice as Research in Music: Theory, Criticism, Practice Mine Dogantan-Dack,2016-03-03 Artistic Practice as Research in Music Theory Criticism Practice brings together internationally renowned scholars and practitioners to explore the cultural institutional theoretical methodological epistemological ethical and practical aspects and implications of the rapidly evolving area of artistic research in music Through various theoretical positions and case studies and by establishing robust connections between theoretical debates and concrete examples of artistic research projects the
