The Materials of Exchange between Britain and North East America, 1750-1900 Daniel Maudlin, Robin Peel, 2016-03-03 Taking a multidisciplinary approach to the complex cultural exchanges that took place between Britain and America from 1750 to 1900 The Materials of Exchange examines material visual and print culture alongside literature within a transatlantic context The contributors trace the evolution of Anglo American culture from its origins as a product of the British North Atlantic Empire through to its persistence in the post Independence world of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries While transatlanticism is a well established field in history and literary studies this volume recognizes the wider diversity and interactions of transatlantic cultural production across material and visual cultures as well as literature As such while encompassing a range of fields and approaches within the humanities the ten chapters are all concerned with understanding and interpreting the same Anglo American culture within the same social contexts The chapters integrate the literary with the material offering alternative and provocative perspectives on topics ranging from the child made book to representations of domestic slaves in literature by way of history painting travel writing architecture and political plays By focusing on cultural exchanges between Britain and the north eastern maritime United States over nearly two centuries the collection offers an in depth study of Britain s relationship with a single region of North America over an extended historic period Contributors have resisted the temptation to prioritize the relationship between New England and England in particular by placing this association within the contexts of Atlantic exchanges with other northeastern states as well as with the South the Caribbean and Scotland Intended for researchers in literature visual and material culture this collection challenges single subject boundaries by redefining transatlantic studies as the collective examination of the complex and interrelated cultural t

The Royal Navy and the British Atlantic World, c. 1750-1820 John McAleer,2016-05-22 This book foregrounds the role of the Royal Navy in creating the British Atlantic in the eighteenth century It outlines the closely entwined connections between the nurturing of naval supremacy the politics of commercial protection and the development of national and imperial identities crucial factors in the consolidation and transformation of the British Atlantic empire The collection brings together scholars working on aspects of the Royal Navy and the British Atlantic in order to gain a better understanding of the ways that the Navy protected facilitated and shaped the British Atlantic empire in the era of war revolution counter revolution and upheaval between the beginning of the Seven Years War and the end of the conflict with Napoleonic France Contributions question the limits conceptually and geographically of that Atlantic world suggesting that by considering the Royal Navy and the British Atlantic together we can gain greater insights into Britain s maritime history Colonial Capitalism and the Dilemmas of Liberalism Onur Ulas Ince,2018 Introduction liberalism and empire in a new key Colonial capitalism and the dilemmas of liberalism framing an inquiry In the beginning all the world was America John Locke s global theory of property Not a partnership in pepper coffee calico or tobacco Edmund Burke and imperial commerce Letters from Sydney Edward G Wakefield and the problem of colonial labor Conclusion bringing the economy back in Early Modern Europe, 1450-1789 Merry E. Bridging the Early Modern Atlantic World Caroline A. Williams, 2016-04-15 Bridging the Early Modern Atlantic World brings together ten original essays by an international group of scholars exploring the complex outcomes of the intermingling of people circulation of goods exchange of information and exposure to new ideas that are the hallmark of the early modern Atlantic Spanning the period from the earliest French crossings to Newfoundland at the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the wars of independence in Spanish South America c 1830 and encompassing a range of disciplinary approaches the contributors direct particular attention to regions communities and groups whose activities in and responses to an ever more closely bound Atlantic world remain relatively under represented in the literature Some of the chapters focus on the experience of Europeans including French consumers of Newfoundland cod English merchants forming families in Spanish Seville and Jewish refugees from Dutch Brazil making the Caribbean island of Nevis their home Others focus on the ways in which the populations with whom Europeans came into contact enslaved or among whom they settled the Tupi peoples of Brazil the Kriston women of the west African port of Cacheu among others adapted to and were changed by their interactions with previously unknown peoples goods institutions and ideas Together with the substantial Introduction by the editor which reviews the significance of the field as a whole these essays capture the complexity and variety of experience of the countless men and women who came into contact during the period whilst highlighting and illustrating the porous and fluid nature in practice of the early modern Atlantic world

The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History, c. 1550-1750, 2018-12-10 William A Pettigrew and David Veevers put forward a new interpretation of the role Europe s overseas corporations played in early modern global history recasting them from vehicles of national expansion to significant forces of global integration Across the Mediterranean Atlantic Indian Ocean and Pacific corporations provided a truly global framework for facilitating the circulation movement and exchange between and amongst European and non European communities bringing them directly into dialogue often for the first time Usually understood as imperial or colonial commercial enterprises The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History reveals the unique global sociology of overseas corporations to provide a new global history in which non Europeans emerged as key stakeholders in European overseas enterprises in the early modern world Contributors include Michael D Bennett Aske Laursen Brock Liam D Haydon Lisa Hellman Leonard Hodges Emily Mann Simon Mills Chris Nierstrasz Edgar Pereira Edmond Smith Haig Smith and Anna Winterbottom

Revolutionary America, 1763-1815 Francis D. Cogliano, 2016-12-01 Revolutionary America explains the crucial events in the history of the United States between 1763 and 1815 when settlers of North America rebelled against British rule won their independence in a long and bloody struggle and created an enduring republic Centering the narrative on the politics of the new republic Revolutionary America presents a clear history of the War of Independence and lays a distinctive foundation for students and scholars of the early American republic Author Francis D Cogliano pays particular attention to the experiences of those who were excluded from the immediate benefits and rights secured by the creation of the republic including women Native Americans and African Americans This third edition has been fully revised and updated to incorporate the insights of the latest scholarship throughout including additional discussion of regional differences and the role of religion New chapters cover the War of 1812 the Revolution as a social movement and the experience of Loyalists allowing students to grasp further dimensions of the conflict and the emergence of the United States

English Atlantics Revisited Nancy L. Rhoden, 2007-08-09 Ian K Steele s pioneering work in imperial and early North American history was a pivotal contribution to the establishment of Atlantic history as a field His study of a unified English and later British Atlantic challenged American exceptionalism and encouraged the current wave of interest in Atlantic studies
