Radicals and Realists in the Japanese Nonverbal Arts Thomas R. H. Havens, 2006-07-31 Radicals and Realists is the first book in any language to discuss Japan s avant garde artists their work and the historical environment in which they produced it during the two most creative decades of the twentieth century the 1950s and 1960s Many of the artists were radicals rebelling against existing canons and established authority Yet at the same time they were realists in choosing concrete materials sounds and themes from everyday life for their art and in gradually adopting tactics of protest or resistance through accommodation rather than

confrontation Whatever the means of expression the production of art was never devoid of historical context or political implication Focusing on the nonverbal genres of painting sculpture dance choreography and music composition this work shows that generational and political differences not artistic doctrines largely account for the divergent stances artists took vis a vis modernism the international arts community Japan's ties to the United States and the alliance of corporate and bureaucratic interests that solidified in Japan during the 1960s After surveying censorship and arts policy during the American occupation of Japan 1945-1952 the narrative divides into two chronological sections dealing with the 1950s and 1960s bisected by the rise of an artistic underground in Shinjuku and the security treaty crisis of May 1960 The first section treats Japanese artists who studied abroad as well as the vast and varied experiments in each of the nonverbal avant garde arts that took place within Japan during the 1950s after long years of artistic insularity and near stasis throughout war and occupation Chief among the intellectuals who stimulated experimentation were the art critic Takiguchi Shuzo the painter Okamoto Taro and the businessman painter Yoshihara Jiro The second section addresses the multifront assault on formalism confusingly known as anti art led by visual artists nationwide Likewise composers of both Western style and contemporary Japanese style music increasingly chose everyday themes from folk music and the premodern musical repertoire for their new presentations Avant garde print makers sculptors and choreographers similarly moved beyond the modern and modernism in their work A later chapter examines the artistic apex of the postwar period Osaka's 1970 world exposition where more avant garde music painting sculpture and dance were on display than at any other point in Japan's history before or since Radicals and Realists is based on extensive archival research numerous concerts performances and exhibits and exclusive interviews with more than fifty leading choreographers composers painters sculptors and critics active during those two innovative decades Its accessible prose and lucid analysis recommend it to a wide readership including those interested in modern Japanese art and culture as well as the history of the postwar years Buddhist Manuscript

Cultures Stephen C. Berkwitz, Juliane Schober, Claudia Brown, 2009-01-13 Buddhist Manuscript Cultures explores how religious and cultural practices in premodern Asia were shaped by literary and artistic traditions as well as by Buddhist material culture This study of Buddhist texts focuses on the significance of their material forms rather than their doctrinal contents and examines how and why they were made Collectively the book offers cross cultural and comparative insights into the transmission of Buddhist knowledge and the use of texts and images as ritual objects in the artistic and aesthetic traditions of Buddhist cultures Drawing on case studies from India Gandhara Sri Lanka Thailand Mongolia China and Nepal the chapters included investigate the range of interests and values associated with producing and using written texts and the roles manuscripts and images play in the transmission of Buddhist texts and in fostering devotion among Buddhist communities Contributions are by reputed scholars in Buddhist Studies and represent diverse disciplinary approaches from religious studies art history anthropology and history This book will be of interest to scholars and students working in these fields Creative Crafts and Miniatures ,1985 Craft Shaping Society Lindy Joubert,2022-05-31 This book focusses on the role of craft as a continuing cultural practice and the revival of disappearing skills in contemporary society It includes twenty five essays by highly regarded artisans academics technologists entrepreneurs businesspeople curators and researchers from many countries representing a wide range of global craft traditions and innovations The authors explain their professional practices and creative pathways with knowledge experience and passion They offer insightful analyses of their traditions within their culture and in the marketplace alongside the evolution of technology as it adapts to support experimentation and business strategies They write about teaching and research informing their practice and they explain the importance of their tools and materials in function and form of the objects they make The essays reveal a poignant expression of their successes disappointments and opportunities This book offers case studies of how artisans have harnessed the traditions of the past alongside the latest design technologies The authors reveal how global craft is not only a vehicle for self expression and creativity but also for being deeply relevant to the world of work community and environmental sustainability The book makes the vital link between skills knowledge education and employment and fills a much needed niche in Technical Vocational Education and Training TVET How to Start a Home-based Craft Business Kenn Oberrecht,Patrice Lewis,2011-07-05 Everything you need to know to run a profitable and satisfying craft business from your home From business and financial planning to marketing your business both online and through traditional outlets this comprehensive guide provides practical solutions and solid advice on how to tap your creative skills to earn a living Learn all about business plans finding supplies on the Internet publicity zoning ordinances and much more Whatever your goals are join the thousands of successful crafters artists and entrepreneurs and experience the satisfaction of establishing and building your own home based craft business Look for useful charts and worksheets throughout the book including Market Survey Form Estimated Start Up Costs Profit and Loss Projection Report Balance Sheet Sample Invoice Creativity and Art Margaret A. Boden,2012-10-25 Margaret Boden presents a series of essays in which she explores the nature of creativity in a wide range of art forms Creativity in general is the generation of novel surprising and valuable ideas conceptual theoretical musical literary or visual Boden identifies three forms of creativity combinational exploratory and transformational These elicit differing forms of surprise and are defined by the different kinds of psychological process that generate the new ideas Boden examines creativity not only in traditional fine art but also in craftworks and some less orthodox approaches namely conceptual art and several types of computer art Her Introduction draws out the conceptual links between the various case studies showing how they express a coherent view of creativity in art Metropolitan Regions Johan Klaesson,Börje Johansson,Charlie Karlsson,2013-06-05 Metropolitan growth has been dramatic in the past several decades and today metropolitan regions are recognized as the main driving forces in national growth and development as well as in national and global innovation processes The purpose of this book is to contribute to a better understanding of how metropolitan regions and their subsystems interact and compete why they differ in their capacity to nurture innovation and growth and how metropolitan policies must be designed to secure the region's long term vitality To that end it presents new contributions on theories of urban growth institutions and policies of urban change and case studies of urban growth prepared by international experts Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.)
