Alma Mater: a Satirical Poem. Designed to Have Been Published in March Last. By a Gentleman of New Inn Hall ALMA MATER.,1733 The Ballad World of Anna Gordon, Mrs. Brown of Falkland Ruth Perry,2025-05-20 This book is a biographical study of unprecedented scope and detail of the celebrated Anna Gordon Mrs Brown of Falkland whose magnificent repertory of old Scottish ballads attracted the fascinated attention of intellectuals and song collectors during the later years of the eighteenth century Her ballads the earliest to be gathered from a named living person were recognized by the great Francis James Child as a unique source in the Anglo Scottish tradition superior in quality to all other versions Anna Gordon was a literary woman with a strongly intellectual middle class background educated by her father a professor in one of Scotland s four universities who himself made significant contributions to Scottish Enlightenment thinking about literacy and the nature of language She lived at the intersection of several different worlds reflecting balladry oral tradition and women s culture as well as Enlightenment debates about orality and literacy and the rapidly expanding imperial enterprise The story encompasses three generations of her remarkable family as they entered the wider Atlantic world with adventures in Scotland Virginia and the West Indies including an elopement and a duel capture by pirates and an evening party given by George Washington The book includes an examination of the complex musical and cultural context from which Anna Gordon sprang Threaded throughout are discussions of the ballads that brought her fame revealing the deep importance of traditional music in Scottish society and the centrality of women as tradition bearers in balladry one of the great verbal and musical art forms of Western Europe Historically informed audio recordings of twelve ballads from her original manuscripts with musical settings based on the notations of her gifted nephew Robert Eden Scott have been made for an accompanying website specially created for this book by leading Scottish folk musicians Carmina Yalensia ,1867 Carmina Collegensia Henry Randall Waite,1868 Carmina Princetonia ,1869 The Songs of Yale ,1860 Sustainable Business and IT Subodh Kesharwani,Devendra K Dhusia,2023-06-09 As Information Technology continues to evolve as a key strategic enabler many establishments feel the need to think more holistically about how IT can support corporate sustainability efforts This book aims to recognize these efforts and best practices in numerous business settings

Sustainability is expensive and requires collaboration between many different areas of the business The solution to the growing burden of carbon emission lies within the technology innovation as continued advancements in processes make businesses lean and smart The multidisciplinary approach the book uses will be appreciated by students academics and researchers in Information Technology Management Corporate and Sustainability Champions Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan «Eighth Sister No More» Paul P. Marthers,2010 When founded in 1911 Connecticut College for Women was a pioneering women s college that sought to prepare the progressive era s new woman to be self sufficient Despite a path breaking emphasis on preparation for work in the new fields opening to women Connecticut College and its peers have been overlooked by historians of women s higher education This book makes the case for the significance of Connecticut College s birth and evolution and contextualizes the college in the history of women s education Eighth Sister No More examines Connecticut College for Women s founding mission and vision revealing how its grassroots founding to provide educational opportunity for women was altered by coeducation how the college has been shaped by changes in thinking about women s roles and alterations in curricular emphasis and the role local community ties played at the college s point of origin and during the recent presidency of Claire Gaudiani the only alumna to lead the college Examining Connecticut College s founding in the context of its evolution illustrates how founding mission and vision inform the way colleges describe what they are and do and whether there are essential elements of founding mission and vision that must be remembered or preserved Drawing on archival research oral history interviews and seminal works on higher education history and women s history Eighth Sister No More provides an illuminating view into the liberal arts segment of American higher education Carmina Princetonia, a collection of the songs of Princeton College, compiled ... by F. A. Marquand, F. H. Markoe, W. J. Henderson Frederick A. Marquand,1876 Institutions for Future Generations Iñigo González-Ricoy,Axel Gosseries,2016 In times of climate change and public debt a concern for intergenerational justice should lead us to have a closer look at theories of intergenerational justice It should also press us to provide institutional design proposals to change the decision making world that surrounds us This book provides an exhaustive overview of the most important institutional proposals as well as a systematic and theoretical discussion of their respective features and advantages It focuses on institutional proposals aimed at taking the interests of future generations more seriously and does so from the perspective of applied political philosophy being explicit about the underlying normative choices and the latest developments in the social sciences It provides citizens activists firms charities public authorities policy analysts students and academics with the body of knowledge necessary to understand what our institutional options are and what they entail if we are concerned about today s excessive short termism Delphi Complete Works of Stephen Leacock (Illustrated) Stephen Leacock,2018-10-27 The internationally acclaimed Canadian humorist Stephen Leacock produced over thirty books of light hearted sketches and essays The beguiling fantasies and hilarious tales of Literary Lapses
