

Rainbows

Rainbows aren't what people think,
In my imagination, they have pink.
They have gray, and brown, and yellow.
Yellow is my favorite fellow.

They have black, and orange, and green.
Rainbows are a pretty scene.
Rainbows are sparkly and shiny too.
They are purple, red and blue.

A rainbow is what appeals to you.

Almost A Rainbow A Of Poems:

Almost a Rainbow Joan Walsh Anglund, 1980 Joan Walsh Anglund shares her thoughts on life and love in a simple and deeply moving book of poems for adults The Scroll of the Violin: Poems 4 Jim Bennett, 2013-07-11 Poetry is about experience What it means to be alive and mortal is explored here These poems cover a range of philosophy religion belief and unbelief religious poems atheist poems questioning poems and answering ones There is trial failure success relationships and joy in this volume of 69 poems There are mirrors sonnets rondeaux some rhymed irregular one haiku and blank verse The title poem was a satisfying one to write I had tried this concept in other ways before As for religion I am convinced that there is deep value in all beliefs Perhaps in some sense every religion is true Or to slightly misquote Richard Dawkins if there is a God out there it could be a lot bigger and more complicated than what s in an easily stated religious description As always ambiguity may be present and it is deliberate Some poems will benefit from second and third readings You ll figure this out as these poems were written for us and that includes you
