

It's my pleasure to introduce Mr. Sherlock Holmes, a man I have known for many years, and in many ways, rescued me from a dull existence - Let me tell you a few things about Holmes. First of all, he is the best and wisest man I have ever known - His physical appearance is remarkable. In height he is rather over six feet, and so excessively lean that he seemed to be considerably taller. His eyes are sharp and piercing. His chin has the prominence which marks the man of determination. His hands are invariably blotted with ink and stained with chemicals. We shared rooms at 221B Baker Street. In those early days, Holmes was certainly not a difficult man to live with. He was quiet in his ways, and his habits were regular. It was rare for him to be up after ten at night, and he had invariably breakfasted and gone out before I rose in the morning. Sometimes he spent his day at the chemical laboratory, or in the dissecting-rooms, and occasionally in long walks, which took him into the lowest portions of the city. His knowledge of sensational literature is immense. His knowledge of Chemistry is profound. He appears to know every detail of every horror perpetrated in the century. He plays the violin well. He is an expert singlestick player, boxer, and swordsman. He has a good practical knowledge of British law. He proclaims to be the World's only consulting detective. He admits to having a natural intuition for deduction. But he does have a soft side. I remember when I was wounded during that Garrideb affair. It was worth a wound, it was worth many wounds, to know the depth of loyalty and love which lay behind that cold mask. His clear, hard eyes were dimmed for a moment, and his firm lips were shaking. For the one and only time I caught a glimpse of a great heart as well as of a great brain. All my years of humble but single-minded service culminated in that moment of revelation and I am pleased to call him my good
