vorn, Don't believe in ghosts Ghosts are the memories of the dead echoes of pain that fade with time What woke in Ashvale Ohio wasn't a ghost It was hunger itself An ancient patient hunger that had slumbered for seventy years in the foundations of a forgotten asylum sealed behind bricks prayers and steel This book isn't a haunted house story Houses are just shells of wood and plaster This is a record of the desecration of flesh There are no heroes coming to save the day Heroes are the first to die their hopes the tastiest meal There's no mystery to solve There's only a massacre to witness Picture an entity that doesn't want your soul Your soul is an abstract concept useless It wants your terror your pain the scream that breaks in your throat when you see the unthinkable It feeds on that It's its sacrament It moves from body to body not like an infection but like an artist switching brushes leaving the old one broken and useless It reanimates the dead not to build an army but to use them as tools as set pieces for its theater of atrocities It all started with a demolition crew Ordinary men with ordinary names who thought they were tearing down an old building Instead they broke the door of a cage They shattered a seal with their ignorance and woke it with their blood What you're about to read is a chronicle of the hours that followed It's the story of Ashvale's fall Don't look for meaning Don't look for a moral There's only one when hell decides to rise it doesn't send legions of horned demons with wings It sends a smile on the face of a man you know And it hands you the tool to destroy everything you love Turn the page if you dare But know that the silence afterward will never be the same Sing with Me Michael Spice,2014-01-07 In Sing With Me Carlisle Jacobson begins a teaching career in Washington D C learning as much as he is teaching Through personal experiences he learns most youths don't have the advantages he enjoyed in the horse country of northern Virginia only a day trip away from Washington but worlds away from its streets plagued by crime and nearly cut off from hopes as a child of privilege and wealth with slave owners of the antebellum south in his ancestry A hunting enthusiast since he was young Carlisle still is alarmed to learn firearms are used frequently in D C for hunting down other people including one of his students and a co worker His most frequent teacher in learning he has a lot to learn is Lucia Sanspeur a black woman with ancestry that extends to Colonial era settlers on the Delaware River including a man who performed a heroic mission during the Revolutionary War despite the white militia leaders' disdain for his skills and initiative Lucia's voice captivates Carlisle from their first encounter and her ideas propel him toward understanding that he looks at the world and other people through a sense of white wealth and privilege When he experiences first hand the violence and crime that victimize many in the area daily Carlisle's education moves into advanced studies but also comes to nearly a complete stop
