All I Want Is Loving You Steve Bergsman,2023-10-30 In All I Want Is Loving You Popular Female Singers of the 1950s author Steve Bergsman focuses on the white female artists of the 1950s a time that predated the chart topping girl groups of the early 1960s These popular performers many of whom graduated out of the big bands of the 1940s impacted popular music in a huge way As the last bastion of traditional pop and the last sirens of swing they undeniably shined in the spotlight Yet these singers fame dimmed relatively quickly with the advent of rock n roll A fortunate few like Doris Day Patti Page Peggy Lee and Debbie Reynolds experienced some of their biggest hits in the late 1950s and Eydie Gorm broke out in the 1960s The luckiest including Dinah Shore and Rosemary Clooney ventured to television with varying degrees of success Others would become major attractions at nightclubs in Las Vegas or like Teresa Brewer shift into the jazz world Though the moment did not last these performers were best selling singers darlings of the disk jockeys and the frenetic heartbeat of fan clubs during their heyday In a companion volume Bergsman has written the history of African American women singers of the same era These Black musicians transitioned more easily as a new form of music rock n roll skyrocketed in popularity In both books Bergsman reintroduces readers to these talented singers offering a thorough look at their work and turning up the volume on their legacy

lady's bedroom George MacDonald Miracles and Magic L.E. Richards, 2012-10-04 Christmas is just not Christmas without the gifts of miracles and magic In this trio of holiday tales a mysterious stranger connects three families and illustrates how to find the joy and meaning not only just in Christmas but also in everyday life To say that fourteen year old Billy is angry is an understatement Orphaned two years earlier he is exiled to a group home where he wonders if he will ever again find the happiness of a family's love In Wooden Angels with the help of an old man Billy is about to discover the gifts he never knew he had In The Christmas Wish after another fight with his father teenager J J decides to run away from his life and his future during a Christmas Eve snowstorm He soon realizes with the help of a new friend that anything is possible Father Tim is struggling with his faith and the fact that his first parish will soon be demolished Just when he thinks all hope is dashed he meets a wise man who encourages him to always be willing to take a Leap of Faith Miracles and Magic shares the poignant journeys of three lost souls as they rely on a stranger's gentle guidance and kind actions to find themselves and the significance behind Christmas Dawn of the DAW Adam Patrick Bell, 2018 Dawn of the DAW tells the story of how the dividing line between the traditional roles of musicians and recording studio personnel producers recording engineers mixing engineers technicians etc has eroded throughout the latter half of the twentieth century to the present Whereas those equally adept in music and technology such as Raymond Scott and Les Paul were exceptions to their eras the millennial music maker is ensconced in a world in which the symbiosis of music and technology is commonplace As audio production skills such as recording editing and mixing are increasingly co-opted by musicians teaching themselves in their do it yourself DIY recording studios conventions of how music production is taught and practiced are remixed to reflect this reality Dawn of the DAW first examines DIY recording practices within the context of recording history from the late nineteenth century to the present Second Dawn of the DAW discusses the concept of the studio as musical instrument and the role of the producer detailing how these constructs have evolved throughout the history of recorded music in tandem Third Dawn of the DAW details current practices of DIY recording how recording technologies are incorporated into music making and how they are learned by DIY studio users in the musically chic borough of Brooklyn Finally Dawn of the DAW examines the broader trends heard throughout summarizing the different models of learning and approaches to music making Dawn of the DAW concludes by discussing the ramifications of these new directions for the field of music education The Emergence of Rock and Roll Mitchell K. Hall, 2014-05-09 Rock and roll music evolved in the United States during the late 1940s and 1950s as a combination of African American blues country pop and gospel music produced a new musical genre Even as it captured the ears of the nation rock and roll was the subject of controversy and contention The music intertwined with the social political and economic changes reshaping America and contributed to the rise of the youth culture that remains a potent cultural force today A comprehensive understanding of post World War II U S history would be incomplete without a basic knowledge of this cultural phenomenon and its widespread impact In this short book bolstered by primary source documents Mitchell K

Hall explores the change in musical style represented by rock and roll changes in technology and business practices regional and racial implications of this new music and the global influences of the music The Emergence of Rock and Roll explains the huge influence that one cultural moment can have in the history of a nation What a Difference a Day Makes Steve Bergsman,2023-10-30 In What a Difference a Day Makes Women Who Conquered 1950s Music Steve Bergsman highlights the Black female artists of the 1950s a time that predated the chart topping girl groups of the early 1960s Many of the singers of this era became wildly famous and respected and even made it into the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame However there were many others such as Margie Day Helen Humes Nellie Lutcher Jewel King and Savannah Churchill who made one or two great records in the 1950s and then disappeared from the scene The era featured former jazz and blues singers who first came to prominence in the 1940s and others who pioneered early forms of rock n roll In a companion volume Bergsman has written the history of white women singers of the same era Although song styles were parallel the careers of Black and white female singers of the period ran in very different directions as the decade progressed The songs of African American vocalists like Dinah Washington and Etta James were segregated to the R B charts or covered by pop singers in the early and mid 1950s but burst into prominence in the last part of the decade and well into the 1960s White singers on the other hand excelled in the early 1950s but saw their careers decline with the advent of rock music In this volume Bergsman takes an encyclopedic look at both the renowned and the sadly faded stars of the 1950s placing them and their music back in the spotlight Broadway Rhythm Dominic Symonds,2017-11-16 Imaginative walking tours that retrace the map of Manhattan as it resonates with the music of Broadway Daily Meditations Jalal Gharfeh,2019-08-23 The world speaks what the mind thinks Grace reveals and transforms When the light shines everything else disappears The earth and heaven declare his glory Only man can block him from his sight What distinguishes man from all creation can be his downfall The treasure is in everyone Few choose to uncover dissolve and live it God is love incarnated in the Christ We are his incarnated flesh and blood to be shared with the hungry thirsty and weary Who are we otherwise What else are we here for To be him is not a question Not to be is not really an option Death is not a choice Every moment in your life is a constant reminder Insights like these quick concise and to the point make up the bulk of this book In the age of Facebook and text messaging who has the time or stamina to wade through long scholarly treatises They are shared to lead to the Spirit that dwells within everyone Once the reader is there it does the rest One taste would lead to the road of no return More questions than answers are provided intended to wake readers up from ordinary thinking and then lure them to go deeper into their souls No systematic thesis is presented or intended nor a consistent approach followed just glimmerings shining through the clouds of the mind The words that may touch the soul are not mine Mine are those that stand in the way The rational mind perceives infinite versions of reality Only through the spirit of God does love reveal itself Words are just words It is the Spirit through them that saves and transforms to the likeness of the Christ Man has failed to work out his salvation That is why he came Salvation through his blood is done completed and at hand Just let his hand lead Too simple for the mind to believe You need to trust like a child and follow like a lamb This is the recurring theme of this book explored from many directions There is no other love worth living for

The Presence of the Past Daniel Bishop,2021 The Presence of the Past offers a new perspective on Hollywood s New Wave as engaged with the vitality of sensory experience and the affective imagination As author Daniel Bishop shows the soundtracks of several key films of the New Hollywood Cinema of the late 1960s and 70s cultivated an array of sensibilities regarding the American past This importance of the past exceeded the New Hollywood s acknowledged use of genre revisionism as a vehicle for timely ideological commentary There was also a vital tendency in this era to locate the past as an object of imagined phenomenal presence Although this concept of the past never solidified into a self conscious discourse it was nevertheless woven into film culture readable between the lines of criticism cultural reception New Wave aesthetics and in the aesthetic and industrial transformations of sound design and film music Bonnie and Clyde 1967 Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid 1969 McCabe and Mrs Miller 1971 The Last Picture Show 1971 American Graffiti 1973 Chinatown 1974 and Badlands 1973 are not only key texts of an exciting era in American popular cinema They are also mediations upon the presence of the past an image central to the polarities of visceral energy and ambiguous ephemerality of utopian dreams and melancholy resignation that characterized this cinema These sensibilities of pastness engage in diverse ways with myth nostalgia paranoia and existential alienation They are however also united by a concern both with the experiential actuality of the past and with the distances that inevitably separate us from this actuality
