Aloha Kisses:

Kiss Me Not Kate Aster, Colt Adler I m trying to picture him way back when But how can I All I see now is the Army Ranger he s become Intoxicating smile Sculpted arms To die for eight pack And enough medals on his uniform to set off airport security from a mile away He doesn t resemble the kid who shared my tree house with me along with every perfect memory of my childhood He protected me long before he protected our country And he knows it all Every hope and dream in my heart Every vulnerability I hide from everyone but him Every secret Except one One tiny lie that I m discovering I want desperately to be the truth Because he s not the only one who s changed since we were ten But I can t risk a friendship that s lasted eighteen years even when his lips are so close that I m wondering if he ll finally kiss me or kiss me not Island
