unified work lyrical yet epic in quality design and spirit Crawley's purpose is to demonstrate the basis of this unity its origin and operation and the nature of its realization He demonstrates that an aesthetically maturing Whitman in this work was finally able to harmoniously bring together his individual and social subject matter Crawley defines the unifying spirit of Leaves of Grass in terms of Whitman's concept of the poet prophet and the poet reader relationship This concept is conveyed primarily through the development of the Christ symbol the dominant image in the poem Through a careful analysis of Whitman's handling of the simultaneous development of the poet prophet and the nation his masterful fusion of the personal element and the national element an understanding of the complex structure of Leaves of Grass emerges Crawley presents an analysis of Whitman's final and carefully arrived at grouping of the lyrics in the 1881 edition according to a definite distinguishable pattern a pattern revealed in Whitman's use of allusions in his transitional poems and passages and most important in his thematic handling of imagery The cumulative effect of these devices is emphasized The organic development of Leaves of Grass made possible by Whitman's faith in and careful adherence to his concept of the organic theory of art is substantiated Crawley concludes his analysis with a detailed examination of the growth of Leaves of Grass as reflected in the various editions leading up to the 1881 volume the last to be revised and published by Whitman Catalogue of Roses. Edition for Autumn, 1860, and Spring, 1861. A descriptive catalogue of selected Roses, cultivated for sale by T. Rivers, etc Thomas RIVERS (Nurseryman.), 1860 A Holiday Present D. F. Phillips Oppenheim, 2005-10 Purchase one of 1st World Library's Classic Books and help support our free internet library of downloadable eBooks Visit us online at www.1stWorldLibrary.ORG It was late summer time and the perfume of flowers stole into the darkened room through the half opened window The sunlight forced its way through a chink in the blind and stretched across the floor in strange zigzag fashion From without came the pleasant murmur of bees and many lazier insects floating over the gorgeous flower beds resting for a while on the clematis which had made the piazza a blaze of purple splendour And inside in a high backed chair there sat a man his arms folded his eyes fixed steadily upon vacancy As he sat then so had he at for a whole day and a whole night The faint sweet chorus of glad living things which alone broke the deep silence of the house seemed neither to disturb nor interest him He sat there like a man turned to stone his forehead riven by one deep line his straight firm mouth set close and hard His servant the only living being who had approached him had set food by his side which now and then he had mechanically taken Changeless as a sphinx he had sat there in darkness and in light whilst sunlight had changed to moonlight and the songs of the birds had given place to the low murmuring of frogs from a lake below the lawns

God and the History of the Universe Jarvis Streeter, 2016-03-22 The popular belief that a scientific understanding of reality is incompatible with a Christian one is simply wrong Some Christian understandings of reality do conflict with some scientific understandings But a thoroughly rational Christian understanding of the origin and history of the universe will be informed by the best scientific theories and the facts founded on them This book weaves a narrative of the origin and history of the universe from the perspective of contemporary science with a Christian understanding of God and of God's role in the origin and history of the universe At the center of this integrated narrative is the view that God who is pure unbounded Love is Creator the zest for life in the universe comes from God and God is the source of Truth Beauty and Goodness in the universe God is amazed and delighted at what God and the world has created God is saddened by ways creatures have fallen short of pure unbounded Love Truth Beauty and Goodness and God's pure unbounded Love keeps on trying to persuade all creatures toward Truth Beauty and Goodness
