A detailed illustration of a house's front entrance. The entrance features a large, dark wooden double door with a brass handle and a small mail slot. Above the door is a decorative pediment with a central sunburst design. The pediment is flanked by two columns, each topped with a heart-shaped finial. The columns are supported by a base with a small, square window. The entire entrance is set against a red brick wall. The title '14 Valentine Place' is written in a large, pink, cursive font across the center of the door. The author's name 'Pamela Bauer' is written in a white, serif font below the title. The overall style is romantic and classic.
