La Cosecha Eduardo C. Fernández, 2000 marks a new stage in the development of U S Hispanic Latino theology

From Misery to Hope Joe Egan, 2010 How can one believe in a God of love amid all the evil and suffering found in the world How does one do theology after Auschwitz while vast numbers of people still have to endure violent oppression every day This book seeks to address such questions from a standpoint informed by life in Africa which in the face of extraordinary difficulties bears witness to Gospel hope by demonstrating forgiveness in action and promoting reconciliation The work unfolds in two parts In the first part a description of the misery that characterises much of life in Africa in the recent past opens up to a theological consideration of the underlying causes and of God s response to them In the second part the joy which is so characteristic of life in Africa even in places of immense suffering sets the scene for detailed reflections on liturgy memory forgiveness and hope

Crosscurrents in Indigenous Spirituality Edward Cook, 2016-05-18 The resurgence of indigenous cultures and the reappearance of their ancient spiritualities during the 1990s is of great interest to social scientists Several such cultures are featured in this book The indigenous populations of struggling multi ethnic democracies in Latin America are demanding to be integrated into the national mainstream together with their holistic values of family economics and ecology Institutional Christianity is being challenged by indigenous theologies that are critical of both traditional Christianity and liberation theology While some see here a danger of syncretism these developments can be experienced as a breath of fresh air Much has been said about the Mayas but they have not been allowed to speak for themselves anthropologist Rafael Girardi 1962 This book is an attempt to allow religious spokespersons from a very ancient and creative civilization to share their faith which has remained hidden for five centuries

Mestizo Christianity Arturo J. Banuelas, 2004-10-29 Mestizo Christianity is the most comprehensive introduction to the work of the principle figures in U S Hispanic theology Protestant as well as Catholic Other anthologies exist but Mestizo Christianity provides the best and most representative writing by each of the fourteen first generation theologians in their areas of specialization Since by every account the Latino Hispanic church will continue to grow well into the twenty first century Mestizo Christianity provides a grounding in an area of increasing theological and pastoral importance Topics include affirming Hispanic culture and theological identity methodology popular religiosity women s voices social ethics spirituality and ecumenical perspectives Also included is a brief biography of each featured author and a comprehensive bibliography of Hispanic theology the only one of its kind Mestizo Christianity will be an indispensable resource for students clergy and pastoral agents

Principle of Mercy Jon Sobrino, 2015-03-24 The essays in Sobrino s latest collection bear on one of the most pressing signs of the times the existence of a crucified people the poor and oppressed of our world whose suffering presents Christian faith with an urgent demand that we take them down from the cross Writing from the Salvadoran context he presents a theology of mercy reflecting on the principles of mercy and solidarity as the mode of Christian witness and discipleship in a world of conflict and suffering In a personal introduction that sets the tone Sobrino describes the evolution of his own thinking under the impact of the Salvadoran reality Part One focuses on the essential character of mercy and on the importance of shaping the mission of the church and the task of theology Part Two analyzes the crucified reality of the Third World with specific reflections on salvation forgiveness and the grace of being forgiven Part Three presents two manifestations of mercy the reality of priesthood and solidarity Finally in a moving Afterword Sobrino focuses on his martyred fellow Jesuits of the Central American Universit

Dorr,2012 The Bible and Colonialism Michael Prior,1997-05-01 The biblical claim of the divine promise of land is integrally linked with a divine mandate to exterminate the indigenous people The narrative has supported virtually all Western colonizing enterprises e g in Latin America South Africa Palestine resulting in the suffering of millions of people and loss of respect for the Bible According to modern secular standards of human and political rights what the biblical narrative calls for are war crimes and crimes against humanity In this provocative and compelling study Prior protests at the neglect of the moral question in conventional biblical studies and attempts to rescue the Bible from being a blunt instrument in the oppression of people Spirituality of the Third World K. Kim, 2012-05-03 The theological reflections of Virgilio Elizondo and Gustavo Gutierrez are examples of the ecclesial fruitfulness of the second half of the twentieth century Following the directives of Pope John XXIII and the Second Vatican Council Elizondo and Gutierrez present the Gospel message in relevant terms to their own people by engaging the world as the Church of the poor Inspired by this moment in Church history while at the same time recognizing the plight of their people in their poor and marginal existence Elizondo and Gutierrez discovered a new way of doing theology by asking a specific set of questions based on their local context By investigating where God is present in the border crossers of the southwestern United States and the poorest of the poor in Latin America both theologians have uncovered a hermeneutical lens in rereading Scripture and deepening our understanding of ecclesial tradition Elizondo's mestizaje and Gutierrez's preferential option for the poor arose out of a theology of context a theological method that takes seriously the contextual circumstances of their locale By utilizing the common loci theologici of Scripture and tradition in conjunction with context and their own experience Elizondo and Gutierrez illustrate through their theologies how every group must embrace their own unique theological reflection and International Politics, 1945-1992 Alessandra Tarquini, Andrea Guiso, 2019-10-01 Italian intellectuals played an important role in the shaping of international politics during the Cold War The visions of the world that they promulgated their influence on public opinion and their ability to shape collective speech whether in agreement with or in opposition to those in power have been underestimated and understudied This volume marks one of the first serious attempts to assess how Italian intellectuals understood and influenced Italy's place in the post World War II world The protagonists represent the three key post war political cultures Catholic Marxist and Liberal Democratic Together these essays uncover the role of such intellectuals in institutional networks their impact on the national and transnational circulation of ideas and the relationships they established with a variety of international associations and movements Apuntes, 1990 Beyond

Borders Virgilio Elizondo, 2009-05-01 A celebration of the theology of Virgilio Elizondo that brings together his significant essays previously unpublished in book form along with critical reflections by a range of scholars Beyond Borders is an indispensable treatment of the breadth of Virgilio Elizondo's theological and pastoral vision Contributors include Thomas H Groome Orlando O Espin Jeeanette Rodriguez Roberto S Goizueta Justo L Gonzalez John A Coleman Alejandro Garcia Rivera Rosino Gibellini Gloria Ines Loya Anita de Luna R Stephen Warner Carlos Mendoza and Jacques Audinet Intercommunal Ecclesiology Steven J. Battin, 2022-07-21 What do Christian communities imagine when they think of themselves as church And how do these ecclesiological imaginations inform Christianity's past and present entanglements with violence and injustice Intercommunal Ecclesiology addresses these questions by examining the distinctive role intergroup dynamics play in shaping Christian collective behaviors against the other that are incongruent with Christian theological principles such as love of neighbor Through interdisciplinary engagement with social psychology systems theory biblical criticism and studies in the early history of Christianity this book makes a case for a theological re envisioning of the church at the three way intersection of an anthropology of intergroup dynamics a soteriology adequately rooted in God's historical salvation plan and a Christology sensitive to Christ's collective embodiment The book argues that within God's plan of historical salvation the church is supposed to function as God's communal response to intercommunal disunity a role it fulfills with integrity only when and where it enacts itself as a counterperformance to aggression conflict and indifference between human communities
