In this her tenth book she brings you beautiful poetic style through her true to life experiences and the feelings that she has lived. She holds nothing back; the poetry comes from within the inner depths of her soul. Mary Ann has a love of God which cannot be denied. She has great knowledge of Bible verses and displays some as she uses them in comments at the end of a poem. She also provides a full glossary of the poetic forms/styles used in the book. It comes as no surprise that she has created some of these forms herself. Learn about life and struggles and how Mary Ann is able to get through whatever is set before her through her faith in the Lord. Everyday Exposure Sarah Marie Wiebe, 2016-09-15 Near the Ontario/Michigan border, Canada's densest concentration of chemical manufacturing surrounds the Aamjiwnaang First Nation. Living in the polluted heart of Chemical Valley, Indigenous community members express concern about a declining rate of male births, in addition to abnormal incidences of miscarriage, asthma, cancer, and cardiovascular and respiratory illnesses. As this book reveals, Canada's dark legacy of inflicting harm on Indigenous bodies persists through a system that fails to adequately address health and ecological suffering in First Nations communities like Aamjiwnaang. Everyday Exposure uncovers the systemic injustices faced on a daily basis in Aamjiwnaang. Exploring the problems that Canada's conflicting levels of jurisdiction pose for the creation of environmental justice policy, analyzing clashes between Indigenous and scientific knowledge, and documenting the experiences of Aamjiwnaang residents as they navigate their toxic environment, this book argues that social and political changes require an experiential and transformative sensing policy approach, one that takes the voices of Indigenous citizens seriously.
