

King William III. AT THE Battle OF THE Boyne

King William said, I don't deserve,
The name of Britain's defender,
For I do not venture life and limb,
To make a few men dumb.

A bullet from the Irish crew,
That gored the Monarch's arm,
We thought his Majesty's men slain,
But it did him little harm.

JULY 1, 1690.

Drum Boys, "he said," he was dismayed,
For the landing of men unexpected,
For that will be our King this day,
And I'll be ground under.

Then let us all with heart and hand,
Unite for ever after,
And follow the glorious memory,
Of King William that crossed the water.
