Disputatio 5: Medieval Forms of Argument: Disputation and Debate

Georgiana Donavin, Carol Poster, Richard Utz, 2002-04-29 These studies illustrate the various high and late medieval transformations of formal and formalized argument from a broadly interdisciplinary perspective. They challenge today's dominant disciplinary approaches to what was and is still a pervasive mode of thought in the West. Many current treatments of medieval disputational texts have a narrow focus either on the history of scholasticism, rhetoric and pedagogy or the genesis and function of such period-specific forms of academic altercation as demonstrative dialectic or sophistic disputation or the later quaestiones quodlibetae and sophismata. Moreover, scholarship in literature often ignores the parallel structures of academic argument and narrowly focuses on the narrative and aesthetic functions of debate poems. Dios Llama A. J.

This book is a unique and definitive biography in English of the Uruguayan-Argentinian short story writer Horacio Quiroga (1878-1937) known as the Latin American Poe. Written in amusing prose and with an academic background, which can be an important reference for the public in general as well as to Latin American literature researchers all over the world, it is an up-to-date narrative biography by a Brazilian writer and researcher who has dedicated the last twenty years to Quiroga's translation and research. The research uses several unknown or lesser-known documents as well as newspapers and magazines from the beginning of the 20th century found in libraries and archives in Argentina, Brazil, Germany and Uruguay. The book is written against a contemporary background and focusses on the humanization of Quiroga and the participation of until now marginalized women in his personal and public life such as Alfonsina Storni and Norah Lange, allowing the construction of an image which is less monumental and more complex in its contradictions. The Prison of Love Emily C.
