The American Idea of England, 1776-1840 Jennifer Clark, 2016-04-01 Arguing that American colonists who declared their independence in 1776 remained tied to England by both habit and inclination Jennifer Clark traces the new Americans struggle to come to terms with their loss of identity as British and particularly English citizens Americans attempts to negotiate the new Anglo American relationship are revealed in letters newspaper accounts travel reports essays song lyrics short stories and novels which Clark suggests show them repositioning themselves in a transatlantic context newly defined by political revolution Chapters examine political writing as a means for Americans to explore the Anglo American relationship the appropriation of John Bull by American writers the challenge the War of 1812 posed to the reconstructed Anglo American relationship the Paper War between American and English authors that began around the time of the War of 1812 accounts by Americans lured to England as a place of poetry story and history and the work of American writers who dissected the Anglo American relationship in their fiction Carefully contextualised historically Clark s persuasive study shows that any attempt to examine what it meant to be American in the New Nation and immediately beyond must be situated within the context of the Anglo American relationship

Spare the Birds! Carolyn Merchant, 2016-08-23 In 1887 a year after founding the Audubon Society explorer and conservationist George Bird Grinnell launched Audubon Magazine The magazine constituted one of the first efforts to preserve bird species decimated by the women s hat trade hunting and loss of habitat Within two years however for practical reasons Grinnell dissolved both the magazine and the society Remarkably Grinnell s mission was soon revived by women and men who believed in it and the work continues today In this the only comprehensive history of the first Audubon Society 1886 1889 Carolyn Merchant presents the exceptional story of George Bird Grinnell and his writings and legacy The book features Grinnell s biographies of ornithologists John James Audubon and Alexander Wilson and his editorials and descriptions of Audubon s bird paintings This primary documentation combined with Carolyn Merchant s insightful analysis casts new light on Grinnell the origins of the first Audubon Society and the conservation of avifauna

Tenacious of Life John James Audubon, John Bachman, 2021-06 Daniel Patterson and Eric Russell present a groundbreaking case for considering John James Audubon s and John Bachman s quadruped essays as worthy of literary analysis and redefine the role of Bachman the perpetually overlooked coauthor of the essays After completing The Birds of America 1826 38 Audubon began developing his work on the mammals The Viviparous Quadrupeds of North America volumes show an antebellum view of nature as fundamentally dynamic and simultaneously grotesque and awe inspiring The quadruped essays are rich with good stories about these mammals and the humans who observe pursue and admire them For help with the science and the essays Audubon enlisted the Reverend John Bachman of Charleston South Carolina While he has been acknowledged as coauthor of the essays Bachman has received little attention as an American nature writer While almost all works that describe the history of American nature writing include Audubon Bachman shows up only in a subordinate clause or two Tenacious of Life strives to restore Bachman s status as an important American nature writer Patterson and Russell analyze the coauthorial dance between the voices of Audubon an experienced naturalist telling adventurous hunting stories tinged often by sentiment romanticism and bombast and of Bachman the courteous gentleman naturalist scientific detective moralist sometimes cruel experimenter and humorist Drawing on all the primary and secondary evidence Patterson and Russell tell the story of the coauthors fascinating conflicted relationship This collection offers windows onto the early United States and much forgotten lore often in the form of travel writing natural history and unique anecdotes all told in the compelling voices of Antebellum America's two leading naturalists

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1970 On the Road with John James Audubon Mary B. Durant, Michael Harwood, 1980 Roscoe and Italy Stella Fletcher, 2016-04-08 Anglo Italian cultural connections in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries have been the subject of numerous studies in recent decades Within that wider body of literature there has been a growing emphasis on appreciation of the history and culture of Renaissance Italy especially in nineteenth century Britain In 1954 J R Hale's England and the Italian Renaissance was a pioneering account of the subject followed in 1992 by Hilary Fraser's monograph The Victorians and Renaissance Italy and in 2005 by Victorian and Edwardian Responses to the Italian Renaissance edited by John E Law and Lene stermark Johansen There is however an obvious gap in the literature concerning the pivotal figure of William Roscoe 1753 1831 the first English language biographer of Lorenzo de Medici and of Pope Leo X The Life of Lorenzo de Medici called the Magnificent proved to be so popular as to prompt the claim that Roscoe effectively invented the Italian Renaissance as it has become understood by subsequent generations of readers in the English speaking world This collection of ten essays redresses the balance by examining Roscoe as biographer as a connoisseur of Italian literature and as a collector of Italian works of art 19th-century America: Paintings and Sculpture Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), John K. Howat, Natalie Spassky, 1970 Chiefly illustrated catalog of an exhibition held in celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the Metropolitan Museum of Art held at the Metropolitan Museum of Art from April 16 through September 7 1970 Edinburgh Mary Cosh, 2003 Based on a range of sources local newspapers and journals published accounts of travels to Scotland diaries letters and reminiscences this work covers the social and literary history of Edinburgh from around 1760 until 1832 the year in which Sir Walter Scott died It presents a picture of how Edinburgh and its inhabitants were seen at the time by visitors and also shows how notable local figures saw their own city The opinions of people such as Dorothy Wordsworth Samuel Coleridge Robert Southey Thomas Carlyle Francis Jeffrey Sydney Smith Thomas de Quincey Walter Scott David Hume and Percy Bysshe Shelley are all represented Ocean Bestiary Richard J. King, 2023-05-26 A delightful A to Z menagerie of the sea whimsically illustrated authoritative and thought provoking For millennia we have taken to the waves And yet for humans the ocean remains our planet's most inaccessible region the place about which we know the least From A to Z abalone to zooplankton and through both text and original illustrations Ocean Bestiary is a celebration of our ongoing quest to know the sea and its creatures Focusing on individual species or groups of animals Richard J King embarks upon a global tour of ocean wildlife including beluga whales flying fish green turtles mako sharks noddies right whales sea cows as well as sea lions sea otters and sea pickles skipjack tuna swordfish tropicbirds walrus and yellow bellied sea snakes But more than this King connects the natural history of ocean animals to the experiences of people out at sea and along the world's coastlines From firsthand accounts passed down by the earliest Polynesian navigators to observations from Wampanoag clamshell artists African American whalers Korean female divers or haenyeo and today's pilots of deep sea submersibles and even to imaginary sea expeditions launched through poems novels and paintings Ocean Bestiary weaves together a diverse array of human voices underrepresented in environmental history to tell the larger story of our relationship with the sea Sometimes funny sometimes alarming but always compelling King's vignettes reveal both how our perceptions of the sea have changed for the better and how far we still have to go on our voyage

The New Moulton's Library of Literary Criticism: Bibliographical supplement and index, 1985 A World of Naturalists Joseph Kastner, 1978 A Species of Eternity Joseph Kastner, 1977 An anecdotal history of the activities explorations discoveries and adventures of the naturalists who roamed painted and wrote about the natural wonders of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century North America
