Everyday Elegance Holly Wahlberg, 1994 1950s Plastics Design Holly Wahlberg, 1999-01 This newly revised book presents a factual discussion of the wide variety of colorful and popular plastics housewares made between 1945 and 1960. Many color photographs of today's highly collectible plastics objects demonstrate the variety of colors and useful forms that were manufactured. Vinyl, Lucite, Melamine, and Formica to name but a few have become common household names since their introduction in this era. Here are chairs, tables, dishes, cups, radios, lampshades, draperies, cooking containers, car interiors, floors, and more, all made of plastics. A very useful Collectors Guide providing information about all the major manufacturers and trade names is organized by product types for easy reference. For 1950s families with small budgets and small homes, the magic of plastics chemistry promised unprecedented practical benefits mingled with the glamour and drama of sleek modern forms. In a single decade, plastics had won favor among an astonishingly diverse group, from dime-store shoppers and young marrieds to gifted designers and prestigious proponents of affordable good design. In tracing plastic's whirlwind rise from wartime sham to postwar miracle, this book explores not only the history of an important segment of 1950s collectibles but also the history of a culture redefining its way of life.
