1968 In West Germany A Guide To Sources Lit:

The German Student Movement and the Literary Imagination Susanne Rinner, 2013-02-01 Through a close reading of novels by Ulrike Kolb Irmtraud Morgner Emine Sevgi Zdamar Bernhard Schlink Peter Schneider and Uwe Timm this book traces the cultural memory of the 1960s student movement in German fiction revealing layers of remembering and forgetting that go beyond conventional boundaries of time and space These novels engage this contestation by constructing a palimpsest of memories that reshape readers understanding of the 1960s with respect to the end of the Cold War the legacy of the Third Reich and the Holocaust Topographically these novels refute assertions that East Germans were isolated from the political upheaval that took place in the late 1960s and 1970s Through their aesthetic appropriations and subversions these multicultural contributions challenge conventional understandings of German identity and at the same time lay down claims of belonging within a German society that is more openly diverse than ever before 1968 in West Germany Philipp Gassert, Pavel A. Richter, 1998 Austria in the European Union Anton Pelinka, 2017-09-08 Austria joined the European Union in 1995 with the overwhelming support of its citizenry In June 1994 a record 66.6 percent of the Austrian population voted in favor of joining the Union and Austria acceded on January 1 1995 Only three years later in the second half of 1998 Austria assumed its first presidency of the European Union Its competent conduct of the Union's business enhanced its reputation The sense that Austria was a role model collapsed overnight after a new conservative People's Party (FPÖ) coalition government was formed in Austria in early February 2000 Austria became Europe's nightmare This volume has two purposes The first is to assess Austria's first five years in the European Union The second is Austria's ongoing struggle with its past Heinrich Neisser evaluates and assesses Austria's commitment to the European Union Thomas Angerer offers a long term perspective of regionalization and globalization trends in Austrian foreign affairs Waldemar Hummer analyzes contradictions between Austrian neutrality and Europe's emerging common security policy Johannes Pollak and Sonja Puntischer Rieckmann look at current debates over weighing future voting rights in the European Commission Michael Huelshoff evaluates Austria's EU presidency in 1998 and compares it to the subsequent 1999 German presidency Gerda Falkner examines the withering away of the previously much admired Austrian welfare state Walter Manoschek scrutinizes the Nazi roots of Jörg Haider's Freedom Party Michael Gehler critiques the EU sanctions and bemoans the absence of mediation through transnational Christian conservative parties In reviewing how Austria deals with World War II Richard Mitten investigates discourses on victimhood in postwar Austria and the place of Jews in this process A Roundtable presents overwhelming evidence of Austrians' deep involvement in Nazi war crimes and includes articles by Sabine Loitfellner and Winfried Garscha This addition to the Contemporary Austrian Studies series will be welcomed by political scientists historians and legal scholars particularly those with a strong interest in European affairs 1968 Gassert Philipp Gassert, 2019-10-15 It was a year of seismic social and political change With the wildfire of uprisings and revolutions that shook governments and halted economies in 1968 the world would never be the same again Restless students workers women and national liberation movements arose as a fierce global community with radically democratic instincts that challenged war capitalism colonialism and patriarchy with unprecedented audacity Fast forward fifty years and 1968 has become a powerful myth that lingers in our memory Released for the fiftieth anniversary of that momentous year this second edition of Philipp Gassert s and Martin Klimke s seminal 1968 presents an extremely wide ranging survey across the world Short chapters written by local eye witnesses and historical experts cover the tectonic events in thirty nine countries across the Americas Europe Asia Australia Africa and the Middle East to give a truly global view Included are forty photographs throughout the book that illustrate the drama of events described in each chapter This edition also has the transcript of a panel discussion organized for the fortieth anniversary of 1968 with eyewitnesses Norman Birnbaum Patty Lee Parmalee and Tom Hayden and moderated by the book s editors Visually engaging and comprehensive this new edition is an extremely accessible introduction to a vital moment of global activism in humanity s history perfect for a high school or early university textbook a resource for the general reader or a starting point for researchers Taking Back the Academy! Jim Downs,Jennifer Manion,2004-12-15 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
