this motif in Western Mediterranean cultures have been examined primarily in relation to the topos of the male dragon slayer This book analyzes artistic images of women and dragons over an extensive period from Classical Greece and Rome with forays to Egypt and Mesopotamia to the early modern period in Western Europe The unique methodology employed in the study of this motif reveals its sacred core as well as its relationship to rituals of fertility and oracular knowledge to the liminal realm between life and death and to the symbolism of Great Mother goddesses At the same time the images explored throughout expose stereotypes and biases against women in unusual positions of power which were embedded in the motif and persisted in Western European art

History, Practice and Pedagogy Susan Barahal,Elizabeth Pugliano,2024-11-21

This edited volume explores the historical practical and pedagogical possibilities for expressing and cultivating empathy through works of art While aspects of what we today recognize as empathy has nestled in the artistic experiences and philosophies of all ages the subjective and elusive nature of empathic responses has often resulted in the relegation of empathy to the margins of art historical inquiry Moving into the second quarter of the twenty first century amidst global health crises civic unrest political turmoil and persistent social inequities and injustices this capacity to feel with and as someone or something outside of ourselves is more critical than ever Probing the very notion of empathy contributions address themes ranging from environmental and social justice to identity and inclusion to transdisciplinary pedagogies and practices each with a critical eye to how works of art not only appeal to empathic sensibilities but might play an active role in developing capacities for empathy in viewers

Dada and Its Later Manifestations in the Geographic Margins Ronit

Milano,Raya Zommer-Tal,Noam Gonnen,2024-06-14 This volume focuses on the unstudied geographic margins of Dada delving into the roots of Dada in Israel Romania Poland and North America Contributors consider some of the practices and experiments that were conceived a century ago surfaced in art throughout the twentieth century and are still relevant today Unearthing its Israeli origins examining Dadaist expressions in Poland and shedding light on overlooked facets of Dadaist art in Romania and North America the authors cast a spotlight on the less explored geographical peripheries of Dada The book is organized around four thematic trajectories space language materiality and reception which are dissected through the lens of micro histories Recognizing the continuing validity of questions raised by Dadaist artists this volume argues that Dada persists as an ongoing endeavor a continual reexamination of the fundamental tenets of art and its ever evolving potential manifestations The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history modernism and history of the twentieth and twenty first centuries
