Art As A Social System Meridian Stanford Calif:

Art as a Social System Niklas Luhmann, 2000 This is the definitive analysis of art as a social and perceptual system by Germany's leading social theorist of the late 20th century It combines three decades of research in the social sciences phenomenology evolutionary biology cybernetics and information theory with an intimate knowledge of art history literature aesthetics and contemporary literary theory

Digital Transformation of Performing Arts Salvino A. Salvaggio, 2025-02-27 In the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic a combination of hybrid working and cultural consumption alongside shifting audience tastes performing arts organisations are dealing with significant challenges around digital transformation DT This book explores the DT of performing arts taking readers on a journey through classical orchestras as illustrative examples From reimagining audience engagement to revolutionising operations the book examines how emerging technologies like AI VR and blockchain are reshaping the cultural landscape Through case studies of successful digital initiatives and analysis of critical success factors readers will gain practical strategies for navigating this complex transition The author emphasises that successful DT hinges on a clear comprehensive strategy and a sharp implementation roadmap Key challenges addressed include balancing tradition with innovation ethical considerations and financial sustainability Notably the book features numerous summary tables that serve as actionable templates providing readers with ready to use tools to support their own DT efforts With a forward looking perspective the book also explores future trends and research directions This concise book synthesises fragmented research and practical insights to provide a readable overview for scholars students and reflective practitioners It will also be of value for arts administrators performers and cultural policymakers across various disciplines

Chronophobia Pamela M. Lee, 2006-02-17 An examination of the pervasive anxiety about and fixation with time seen in 1960s art In the 1960s art fell out of time both artists and critics lost their temporal bearings in response to what E M Cioran called not being entitled to time This anxiety and uneasiness about time which Pamela Lee calls chronophobia cut across movements media and genres and was figured in works ranging from kinetic sculptures to Andy Warhol films Despite its pervasiveness the subject of time and 1960s art has gone largely unexamined in historical accounts of the period Chronophobia is the first critical attempt to define this obsession and analyze it in relation to art and technology Lee discusses the chronophobia of art relative to the emergence of the Information Age in postwar culture The accompanying rapid technological transformations including the advent of computers and automation processes produced for many an acute sense of historical unknowing the seemingly accelerated pace of life began to outstrip any attempts to make sense of the present Lee sees the attitude of 1960s art to time as a historical prelude to our current fixation on time and speed within digital culture Reflecting upon the 1960s cultural anxiety about temporality she argues helps us historicize our current relation to technology and time After an introductory framing of terms Lee discusses such topics as presentness with respect to the interest in systems theory in 1960s art kinetic sculpture and new forms of global media the temporality of the body and the spatialization of the visual image in the paintings of Bridget Riley and the performance art of Carolee Schneemann

Robert Smithson's interest in seriality and futurity considered in light of his reading of George Kubler's important work The Shape of Time: Remarks on the History of Things and Norbert Wiener's discussion of cybernetics and the endless belaboring of the present in sixties art as seen in Warhol's Empire and the work of On Kawara

Discursive Analytical Strategies Niels Åkerstrøm Andersen, 2003-01-29 Examining the theories of Foucault, Koselleck, Laclau and Luhmann, the book discusses and combines these theories to suggest new analytical strategies for understanding society

Orchestra Management in Practice Salvino A. Salvaggio, 2023-12-15 Introducing the business models, organisational structures and fundamentals of orchestras, this book takes readers on a journey through the evolution of orchestra management. The author explores the dynamics between artistic excellence and financial sustainability. Key aspects of orchestra management are examined in detail, including artistic programming, strategic planning, financial and compliance, legal matters, audience development, resilience and adaptability, governance and board relations, diversity and inclusion, partnerships and the role of technology and innovation. With actionable resources such as checklists, templates and frameworks for current and future orchestra leaders and managers, this comprehensive guide empowers readers in education and practice to navigate the complexities of orchestra management confidently and effectively

Design Thinking and the New Spirit of Capitalism Tim Seitz, 2019-11-26 An ethnographic study on Design Thinking, this book offers profound insights into the popular innovation method, centrally exploring how design thinking's practice relates to the vast promises surrounding it. Through a close study of a Berlin-based innovation agency, Tim Seitz finds both mundane knowledge practices and promises of transformation. He unpacks the relationships between these discourses and practices and undertakes an exploratory movement that leads him from practice theory to pragmatism. In the course of this movement, Seitz makes design thinking understandable as a phenomenon of what Boltanski and Chiapello described as the new spirit of capitalism, that is, an ideological structure that incorporates criticism and therefore strengthens capitalism

Autopoietic Organization Theory Tore Bakken, Tor Hernes, 2003 In bringing together authors from different European countries and institutions as well as from different disciplines, this anthology introduces the reader to selected areas of Luhmann's autopoiesis that have bearing on organization theory. It discusses aspects that are of particular interest to both theoretical and empirical organization theory and, in doing so, it enables students of organizations to acquire better appreciation of Luhmann's thinking

German Art in New York Gregor Langfeld, 2025-10-01 Why did the Museum of Modern Art and the Guggenheim in New York and art collectors and curators such as Katherine Dreier and Alfred Barr collect modern German art in the first half of the twentieth century? And why did certain works of art belong to the canon while others did not? In this book, Gregor Langfeld argues that National Socialism played a crucial role in the canonization of movements such as Expressionism and the Bauhaus, a role which undermined the post-1945 reputations of many artists associated with classical and figurative trends. Langfeld offers important new insights into the political and ideological motivations behind the New York art world's fluctuations in opinion fashion and price      Bibliografisch repertorium van de wijsbegeerte, 2000      The Paradox of Authenticity Joseph Feinberg, 2018-07-24 A theoretically rich and vividly written ethnography of folklore revival and performance in Eastern Europe that provocatively embraces larger questions of social theory authenticity and philosophy      The Fifth Modality Carl W. Roberts, 2008 This book introduces a theoretical perspective for distinguishing all mass societies a TM persons situations and cultures in accordance with four modalities e g ability for most U S citizens necessity for most Scandinavians obligation for most Japanese and permission for most Arabs      Estatuto jurídico de las lenguas de señas en el derecho español José Gabriel Storch de Gracia y Asensio, 2018-09-17 Esta monografía desvela la situación jurídica actual de las personas con discapacidad auditiva analizando temas importantes para que las personas discapacitadas puedan desenvolverse en la sociedad con la misma naturalidad y efectividad que el resto de los ciudadanos Los autores aportan ideas que permitan a las personas con discapacidad auditiva ejercer con plenitud los derechos que les reconocen las normas publicadas en el Boletín Oficial del Estado      Pentecostal Power Calvin Smith, 2010-11-26 Since the 1980s an explosion of Pentecostalism across Latin America has attracted considerable attention across various academic disciplines This edited volume provides a multidisciplinary and continent wide treatment of Latin American Pentecostalism by various experts representing an important contribution to the current literature      Aesthetics of Appearing Martin Seel, 2005 This book proposes that aesthetics begin not with concepts of being or semblance but with a concept of appearing Seel examines the existential and cultural meaning of aesthetic experience In doing so he brings aesthetics and philosophy of art together again which in continental as well as analytical thinking have been more and more separated in the recent decades      Art, Religion, Amnesia Donald Preziosi, 2013-12-04 Art Religion Amnesia addresses the relationship between art and religion in contemporary culture directly challenging contemporary notions of art and religion as distinct social phenomena and explaining how such Western terms represent alternative and even antithetical modes of world making In this new book Professor Preziosi offers a critique of the main thrust of writing in recent years on the subjects of art religion and their interconnections outlining in detail a perspective which redefines the basic terms in which recent debates and discussions have been articulated both in the scholarly and popular literature and in artistic political and religious practice Art Religion and Amnesia proposes an alternative to the two conventional traditions of writing on the subject which have been devoted on the one hand to the spiritual dimensions of artistry and on the other hand to the equally spurious aesthetic aspects of religion The book interrogates the fundamental assumptions fuelling many current controversies over representation idolatry blasphemy and political culture Drawing on debates from Plato's proposal to banish representational art from his ideal city state to the Danish cartoons of Mohamed Preziosi argues that recent debates have echoed a number of very ancient controversies in political philosophy theology and art history over the problem of representation and its functions in individual and social life This book is a unique re evaluation of the essential indeterminacy of meaning making marking a radically new approach to understanding the inextricability of aesthetics and theology and will be of interest to students and researchers in art history philosophy and religion and cultural theory     The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006     American Book Publishing Record ,2002     Etzioni's Critical Functionalism David Sciulli,2011-01-17 Written for social theorists and general readers including undergraduates David Sciulli s book is the first to explain not only how but also why Amitai Etzioni s publications evolved from his dissertation to Active Society and Socio Economics to Communitarianism     World Yearbook of Education 1998 David Hicks,Richard Slaughter,2012-09-10 One of the central roles of education is to prepare students for the future and yet its study is often a neglected issue This work focuses on the futures field as an educational resource using case studies from around the world and on the nature of education for sustainability     Being Singular Plural Jean-Luc Nancy,2000 This book by one of the most innovative and challenging contemporary thinkers rethinks community and the very idea of the social Nancy s fundamental argument is that being is always being with that I is not prior to we that existence is essentially co existence
