The Trouble With Art Roger Sansi, Jonas Tinius, 2024-10-31 Art troubles anthropology Anthropologists have often taken a philistine sceptical position of distance towards art and aesthetics as a predominantly Western bourgeois institution But art not only as a Western institution generated its own philistine and iconoclastic revisions and undoings its anti art that have engaged anthropology into its theory and practice Anthropology is thus part of the trouble with art But trouble doesn't necessarily obfuscate it can also reveal and render visible fault lines and problems troubles can be assemblages of disparate and even contradictory parts that paradoxically do work together This volume proposes an anthropology that moves beyond philistinism and the contradictions between critical anthropologies of art and collaborative and experimental anthropologies with art

English Discourse Markers of Reformulation M. Milagros del Saz Rubio, 2007 This book deals with the notion of reformulation and more specifically with a group of lexico grammatical units which help codify and signal the activity of reformulation in English While discourse markers in English have been described in detail the area of reformulation is a relatively unexplored area in comparison with languages such as French or Spanish In this respect this book has been conceived as a contribution to the field of Discourse Markers and in particular to the markers that help display the function of reformulation in English First of all a definition of the notion of reformulation is provided as a necessary precondition for the elaboration of a taxonomy of English reformulators. These are grouped into different classes and sub classes on the basis of the type of reformulation effected. Thus four main types are identified: Expansion, Modification, Reassessment and Compression. After an inductive and interpretive analysis of examples taken from the British National Corpus (BNC), the syntactic and distributional properties of these units as well as their environments of use are described and discussed.

From Point to Pixel Meredith Hoy, 2017-01-03 In this fiercely ambitious study Meredith Anne Hoy seeks to reestablish the very definitions of digital art and aesthetics in art history. She begins by problematizing the notion of digital aesthetics tracing the nineteenth and twentieth century movements that sought to break art down into its constituent elements which in many ways predicted and paved the way for our acceptance of digital art. Through a series of case studies Hoy questions the separation between analog and digital art and finds that while there may be sensual and experiential differences they fall within the same technological categories. She also discusses computational art in which the sole act of creation is the building of a self-generating algorithm. The medium isn't the message what really matters is the degree to which the viewer can sense a creative hand in the art.

On Beckett, On! Jean-Michel Rabaté, Laurel Garver, 2025-06-10 This collection of essays was born from a wish to show to a wider audience how exciting and productive Samuel Beckett scholarship has become at a time when there are more essays and books written about Beckett than about any key modernist authors like Joyce and Woolf. This volume contains numerous essays on Beckett that the Journal of Modern Literature has published in the last decade. Their enduring quality proves that Beckett's oeuvre has maintained its appeal today because it attracts original scholars who are also interested in issues like philosophy, psychoanalysis, ethics, contemporary history and literary theory.

Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti-Aesthetic James Elkins, Harper Montgomery, 2015-06-26 Each of the five volumes in the Stone Art Theory Institutes series and the seminars on which they are based brings together a range of scholars who are not always directly familiar with one another's work. The outcome of each of these convergences is an extensive and unpredictable conversation on knotty and provocative issues about art. This fourth volume in the series Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti Aesthetic focuses on questions revolving around the concepts of the aesthetic, the anti aesthetic and the political. The book is about the fact that now almost thirty years after Hal Foster defined the anti aesthetic there is still no viable alternative to the dichotomy between aesthetics and anti or nonaesthetic art. The impasse is made more difficult by the proliferation of identity politics and it is made less negotiable by the hegemony of anti aesthetics in academic discourse on art. The central question of this book is whether artists and academicians are free of this choice in practice in pedagogy and in theory The contributors are St phanie Benzaquen J M Bernstein Karen Busk Jepsen Luis Camnitzer Diarmuid Costello Joana Cunha Leal Angela Dimitrakaki Alexander Dumbadze T Brandon Evans Geng Youzhuang Boris Groys Be ta Hock Gordon Hughes Michael Kelly Grant Kester Meredith Kooi Cary Levine Sunil Manghani William Mazzarella Justin McKeown Andrew McNamara Eve Meltzer Nadja Millner Larsen Maria Filomena Molder Carrie Noland Gary Peters Aaron Richmond Lauren Ross Toni Ross Eva Sch rmann Gregory Sholette Noah Simblist Jon Simons Robert Storr Martin Sundberg Timotheus Vermeulen and Rebecca Zorach Lucky Kunst Gregor Muir, 2010-01-25 These days artists like Damien Hirst and Tracey Emin are major celebrities But Gregor Muir knew them at the start his unique memoir chronicles the birth of Young British Art Muir YBA s embedded journalist happened to be in Shoreditch and Hoxton before Jay Jopling arrived with his White Cube Gallery when this was still a semi derelict landscape of grotty pubs and squats There he witnessed amid a whirl of drunkenness scrapes and riotous hedonism the coming together of a remarkable array of young artists Hirst the Chapman brothers Rachel Whiteread Sam Taylor Wood Angus Fairhurst who went on to produce a fresh irreverent often notorious form of art Hirst s shark Sarah Lucas s two fried eggs and a kebab By the time of the seminal Sensation show at the Royal Academy YBA had changed the art world for ever Aesthetics After Modernism Diarmuid Costello, 2024 Aesthetics after Modernism argues for the ongoing relevance of aesthetics to art after modernism In it I show that even what are typically taken to be the hardest of hard cases engage us in recognisably aesthetic ways and as such remain amenable to aesthetic analysis Why if that is true do so many art theorists critics and sometimes even artists appear to think otherwise I trace the artworld s rejection of aesthetic theory to Clement Greenberg s success in co opting the discourse of aesthetics notably Kant s aesthetics to underwrite his own formalism about modernist art Not only has this led to Kant being tarred with the brush of Greenbergian formalism it has also led critics and theorists of later art to miss the resources of the aesthetic tradition perhaps especially Kant for capturing what is distinctive about our cognitive relation to the kinds of art that interest them There is a tendency simply to assume that Kant s aesthetics cannot speak to the more conceptual aspects of our interactions with art I trace the legacy of Greenberg s modernism and formalism for later art criticism and theory before offering an interpretation of Kant s theory of art that seeks to show otherwise I take Conceptual Art as my test case here is a form of art that often claims to forgo sensible properties altogether But if Kant s aesthetics can accommodate to our cognitive relation to art with no sensible features relevant to its appreciation as art then it should in principle withstand the challenge of any form of art
